Kejri, others let off in excise scam

Special judge Jitendra Singh raps CBI for procedural lapses, refuses to put accused on trial

UDAYAN KISHORE @ New Delhi

A Delhi court on Friday discharged former chief minister Arvind Kejriwal and 22 others, including deputy CM Manish Sisodia and ex-BRS leader K Kavitha in the alleged excise scam, finding it unworthy of trial as it junked the CBI chargesheet.

Hours later, the CBI moved the Delhi High Court challenging the trial court order.

Trial court special judge Jitendra Singh also pulled up the CBI for procedural lapses, violation of constitutional principles and relying on hearsay evidence. He also found the 'South Group' label for the excise policy accused particularly inappropriate, adding he will recommend a departmental inquiry against the investigating officer of the case.

Arvind Kejriwal gets emotional as he addresses the media on Friday | PTI

It's a historic verdict. The court has proved that Kejriwal, Manish Sisodia and AAP are kattar imaandar (staunchly honest). I challenge the PM to hold fresh polls in Delhi. If BJP wins over 10 seats, I will quit politics

— Arvind Kejriwal, AAP convener

Satyamev Jayate* (truth alone triumphs). This (case) was a web of lies. Judiciary has cut right through it. Who will account for the time that I lost with my kids (due to her incarceration for five months)?

— K Kavitha, Telangana Jagruthi president

"Prosecution case, as presented in the chargesheet, rests largely on surmises, conjectures, and inferential leaps unsupported by cogent material," the judge said.

Singh said that the policy was the outcome of a structured governmental process involving multiple departments, expert committees and cabinet-level approvals, and the decisions, even if later withdrawn or criticised, "cannot by themselves give rise to criminal liability unless supported by clear evidence of quid pro quo, personal gain, or misuse of office".

Prosecution case does not disclose even the threshold of prima facie suspicion, far less the "grave suspicion" mandated by settled principles of criminal jurisprudence, the court said. Observing that the judicial task was not to secure a convenient outcome or to endorse a dominant narrative, but to uphold the rule of law, the judge refused to put the accused on trial.

The judge rejected the charge that Kejriwal as the then CM exercised overarching control over the conspiracy relating to the formulation and implementation of the excise policy, saying the only principal material relied upon to implicate him was the statement of approver, which was "without any independent corroboration".

GDP projected to grow 7.6% in FY26 under new series

PUSHPITA DEY @ New Delhi

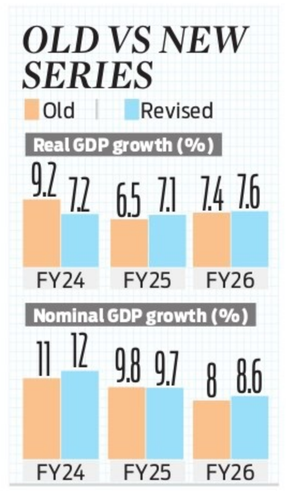
THE Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation on Friday released a new series of annual and quarterly National Accounts with 2022-23 as the base year, replacing the 2011-12 series, and raised India's real GDP growth estimate for FY26 to 7.6% from 7.4% projected earlier.

Quarterly data showed that real GDP growth in Q3 of 2025-26 eased to 7.8% from 8.4% in Q2. In the corresponding year-ago period, the economy recorded 8% growth.

Chief Economic Advisor V Anantha Nageswaran said that given the revised data, strong Q3 performance, and an improving outlook for capital flows and trade frameworks, FY27 real GDP growth projection was revised upward from 6.8-7.2% range to 7-7.4% with upward risk. The CEA added that with full-year growth estimated at 7.6% for FY26, the economy would need to expand by over 7.8% in Q4 to meet the projection.

The base year revision aims to better capture structural changes in the economy, incorporate new data sources, refine estimation methodologies, and enhance coverage and accuracy.

MoSPI Secretary Saurabh Garg highlighted the adoption of double deflation in the new series. "Earlier, single deflation methods were used in several sectors. Now, double deflation has been implemented in agriculture and manufacturing. This means more accurate measurement of real value added."



Barbers deny entry to Dalits, govt opens salon for them

AMIT S UPADHYE @ Hubballi

AFTER a bizarre turn of events at a village in Mundargi taluk of Gadag district, the state government has opened a barber shop to ensure Dalits get a haircut.

Singatalur village now has probably the first such barber shop run by the government. It was inaugurated by the social welfare department.

Local residents said that a barber shop in the village had refused a haircut to a Dalit youth a few weeks ago. As tension escalated, local administration officials reached the village and held peace meetings. But despite their efforts, barbers refused to give haircuts to Dalits. The administration served a notice to the shop and directed it to shut.

On Thursday, the social welfare department opened the new barber shop where Dalits and other villagers can get a haircut. But Dalit activists pointed out that the government cannot go on building barber shops, temples and hotels wherever the entry of Dalits is frowned upon. They demanded strict action against the village barbers and sought that new laws be passed to ensure that Dalits do not face discrimination.

Gadag Social Welfare Department Deputy Director Nanda Hanabatti, inaugurating the shop, urged the people to give up feelings of superiority and inferiority and to live with the noble mindset that all are equal.

Tahsildar PS Erriswamy said that even so many years after Independence and when research is being conducted on the moon, it is unfortunate that untouchability still exists. P5

'EXTRA-MARITAL AFFAIR'

Just before polls, Vijay's wife calls it quits

PRABHAKAR TAMILARASU @ Chennai

SANKGEETHA Vijay, wife of actor-politician and Tamizhaga Vettri Kazhagam (TVK) leader Vijay Chandrasekar, has filed a divorce petition before the Chengalpattu court alleging cruelty and adultery. The family court has summoned Vijay to appear before it on April 20.

Sankgeetha accused her husband of having an extra-marital relationship with an actress and that he has subjected her to "persistent mental cruelty, neglect and desertion".

If required, she said she would implead the actress as second respondent. She urged the court to hold in-camera proceedings to protect the privacy and dignity of the parties and their children.

On December 3 last, Sankgeetha filed the petition before the Principal District Judge Court, Chengalpattu, under provisions of the Special Marriage Act, 1954.

The petition was transferred to the family court on February 24. After the first hearing in the case on Thursday, the family court adjourned the matter to April 20 and directed Vijay to appear in person.

In her petition, Sankgeetha said the marriage was first registered in the UK on July 10, 1998, and later solemnised according to Hindu rites in Chennai on August 25, 1999. The petition stated that the marriage was initially cordial and that she devoted herself to family life and raising their children while supporting Vijay's professional commitments.

However, she alleged that in April 2021 she discovered that Vijay was involved in an adulterous relationship with an actress, which caused "deep emotional pain and mental suffering". Despite assurances that the relationship would end, she claimed their association continued. Sankgeetha also contended that attempts to resolve the dispute amicably through legal notices and personal discussions between 2021 and 2025 failed. She alleged that financial restrictions were imposed on her and that the marital relationship had irretrievably broken down.

Seeking dissolution of marriage, she has requested permanent alimony, residence at matrimonial home or an equivalent accommodation.

HC directs GBA to reconsider diverting SWDs, or restore drains

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

DISMISSING petitions filed by Mantri Tranquil Apartments' Owners' Association, Royal Palms Residents' Welfare Association and a few others, the Karnataka High Court directed Greater Bengaluru Authority (GBA) to reinspect storm water drains (SWDs) and reconsider diverting their course to ensure free flow of water into Subramanyapura lake, if the petitioners provide an alternative course for the drains.

If they don't provide an alternative course, GBA should take necessary measures to restore drains as per the report of the expert committee, the court said, considering the fact that Subramanyapura lake is live, and Gubbalala village has a catchment area of nearly 1 sqkm, in the interest of other people living in the area.

The petitioners, Mantri Tranquil Apartments, Mantri Developers Private Limited, filed the petition in 2014, challenging a notice dated July 30, 2014, and sought directions to GBA not to interfere with the occupation of members of Mantri Tranquil, built at Gubbalala village in Bengaluru South taluk, and not to demolish the residential complex or any portion of it.

Royal Palms Residents' Welfare Association and BR Sanjay moved the high court in 2019, seeking directions to the erstwhile BBMP not to transgress or trespass or interfere in the rightful occupation and possession of residents in Royal Palms Layout at Gubbalala, under the guise of restoring an SWD or under the guise of removal of encroachments over the SWD as per the representation submitted in 2019.

Dismissing both the petitions recently, Justice R Nataraj stated that a map of the area was placed on record by the expert panel constituted by the state government, as well as the building plan filed by the petitioners, which goes to show that if the SWD, as it ran through Sy.Nos. 7 and 11 are preserved, it would be difficult for owners of the respective properties to develop them, as it would cut through their properties, and they may have to set apart the applicable buffer.

"The fact that the course of these drains have been altered is evident from the report of the expert committee. While Mantri Tranquil has pushed drain-I to the edge of its property, it has closed off drain-II. Therefore, the involvement of erstwhile owners of Sy.No. 7 in effacing the SWD from the master plan in collusion with officials of BDA cannot be ruled out," the court observed.

The petitioners contended that the land falls in the residential zone in the Comprehensive Development Plan, 1995, and there was no mention of the SWD running through the lands, and construction was carried out as per the sanctioned plan. The court stated that the contention is inconsequential, as once the land is vested in the state government, unless it is shown that rights are created in respect of that land, no one, including the petitioners, can claim any right, title or interest over it, even if a master plan does not reflect it.

Flooding alien to Bengaluru

The High Court observed that every Bengalurean was of the impression that there can be no flooding in their city, though several low-lying areas where the poor lived were frequently inundated. The administration woke up only when an upscale/rich locality where the rich and famous lived came under water, and several vehicles worth hundreds of crores were found floating. In the instant case, this court has conducted several exercises to find out whether there is encroachment over the SWD, and every exercise has shown there is encroachment.

The HC stated that in order to ensure the arteries of these water bodies are kept sacrosanct, the British excluded them from assessment and gave us a blueprint etched in stone, so they are maintained for posterity.

We have to thank the British for the topographical survey and great Trigonometrical Survey of India, which they did on donkeys' backs using basic equipment, and giving us a document that continues to be a beacon for survey and revenue administration for over a hundred years. It is unfortunate that despite the technological advancement, we are unable to conduct a second general survey in the state of Karnataka.

Relief process for PRR-1 anti-farmer: Land losers

State should follow fair compensation practice, says association

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Peripheral Ring Road Farmers and Site Owners' Association (PRR Raitha Hagu Niveshanadarara Sangha) has opposed the state government's move to acquire 2,560 acres of land to implement the PRR-1 project (Tumkur Road–Hosur Road).

Ramesh Krishna, general secretary of the association, on Friday said the process initiated to award compensation for land losers is anti-farmer. "Any major infrastructure project should have a DPR (detailed project report). Moreover, at least 80% of land acquisition should be completed. The government is going ahead with the PRR project without these aspects. Inviting tenders in such a situation is unfair and illegal," he said.

The BDA's compensation proposal is unjust and inadequate. It violates the principles of fair compensation. "The government is going ahead with compensation based on guideline values as per BDA's 2016 rules. But our demand is that land be acquired and compensation paid under the 2013 Act," he said.

The association demanded that the state government and BDA strictly follow the statutory procedures under the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013 (RFCTLARR Act, 2013). This includes market-linked valuation, social impact assessment (SIA), public hearings, rehabilitation and resettlement and time-bound and just compensation.

The association said that its aim is to seek urgent attention to the procedural, legal, environmental, and compensation-related violations by BDA in the implementation of the PRR/BBC project.

Stating that the PRR scheme has lapsed under Section 27 of the BDA Act, the office-bearers of the association said the land owners should immediately seek NOCs in their favour. "Any scheme that is not executed within five years of announcement will lapse automatically and PRR dates back to 2007 with no progress for nearly 20 years. A lapsed scheme cannot be revived, extended, or used for land acquisition or for inviting tenders. Therefore, BDA has no legal authority to proceed with the project. The landowners must be given NOCs immediately," said a member of the association.

The members said tenders were invited without any DPR and without 80% land acquisition – a procedural breach and an illegal attempt to push the project forward.

Officials told to take over properties for ORR-PRR widening

Bengaluru: Bengaluru East City Corporation Additional Commissioner Lokhande Snehal Sudhakar held a meeting with officials from various departments on the implementation of the 24-metre road widening project connecting Outer Ring Road (ORR) to Peripheral Ring Road (PRR). The project involves Phase-1 implementation of the road connecting ORR to PRR via Mahadevapura, Doddanekkundi, Pattandur Agrahara and Nagonahalli. "The Additional Commissioner issued strict instructions to officials to take possession of properties marked for road widening, collect details of the remaining properties pending for acquisition, and initiate the process of issuing the notifications," said a senior official. Town Planning officials in BDA and GBA were instructed to immediately submit approved development plan copies and RD copies related to land reserved for road widening near Bagmane Tech Park and Brigade area to the Land Acquisition and TDR section. "Survey department officials were instructed to inspect the 'kharab' land near Goshala and submit a report." ENS

'NO ENVIRONMENTAL CLEARANCE TAKEN'

The PRR alignment cuts directly through Jarakabande Kaval, a sensitive ecological zone and Arkavathy catchment area, which is vital for Bengaluru's ecological balance. Yet, the BDA has not obtained environmental, forest, or wildlife clearance. Inviting tenders without these mandatory approvals is a serious violation of environmental law, the association said.

Over 850 ex-servicemen participate in job fair

Bengaluru: The Directorate General Resettlement (DGR), under the Department of Ex-Servicemen Welfare (DoESW), Ministry of Defence, organised an Ex-Servicemen (ESM) job fair at MEG & Centre on Friday. The event saw participation from both ex-servicemen and industry representatives, with over 850 ESM and 51 leading national and multinational companies coming together to offer more than 780 employment opportunities across diverse sectors. The job fair was inaugurated by Lt Gen JK Gera, Commandant, ASC Centre & College, along with Commodore Vikrant Kishore, PD, DGR. Senior officers interacted with participating ESM and corporate representatives, gaining insights into emerging employment opportunities and industry expectations. Major recruiters included BEL, Genpact, Cemindia and Toyota Kirloskar Auto Parts, among other reputed organisations. BEL conducted an on-the-spot written examination, following which 12 ESM were shortlisted for interviews. The fair provided a platform for ex-servicemen to showcase their technical, managerial and administrative expertise while enabling industry to access a disciplined, skilled and experienced talent pool. ENS

Yelachenahalli residents mull dumping garbage at GBA office as protest

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

RESIDENTS of HT Line, Ilyas Nagar, Shani Mahatma Temple vicinity, Indian School area, Fayazabad-Raghavendra School surroundings, Basappa Reddy Compound, Pipeline Road and other areas in Yelachenahalli in Bengaluru South City Corporation are tolerating the stench of rotting garbage piled up on street corners.

Gulab Pasha, activist from Swaraj India, said the issue of garbage collection was escalated to ward engineers and assistant general manager, Bengaluru Solid Waste Management Limited (BSWML), and contractor Hemanth, but was not addressed for the past 15 days.

"The majority of residents here are downtrodden, and are vulnerable to infections due to garbage piles and bad stench, but the stakeholders have done very little or nothing to clear the waste. Some frustrated residents were contemplating hiring a tractor and dumping mounds of waste at the GBA head office as a protest," said Pasha.

The residents say that due to garbage, residents are also facing mosquitoes, and not just foul smell, infestation and serious health hazards for residents.

Despite DyCM and Bengaluru Development Minister DK Shivakumar announcing special drives and "mission-mode" cleanliness initiatives for the city, the reality on the ground remains unchanged. The residents stated, "If the DyCM's initiative truly had value, we wouldn't be forced to live amid piles of garbage. Announcements and photo-ops cannot clean Bengaluru; only consistent work and strict accountability can. As long as officials fail to perform, these initiatives hold no real meaning for citizens."

The residents have demanded immediate clearance of garbage in all affected zones, daily and transparent monitoring of waste collection, action against negligent officials, including deputy GM of BSWML, health inspectors and marshals -- community involvement and ward-level accountability mechanisms.

B'luru Karaga on April 1, on the lines of Dasara

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

MUZRAI Minister Ramalinga Reddy on Friday announced that the historical Bengaluru Karaga will be held on April 1. He stated that the lighting decorations and events in and around Dharmarayaswamy Temple, Chickpet, will be inspired by Mysuru Dasara celebrations.

The minister said that installation of security cameras and other security arrangements will be the responsibility of Central City Corporation. The preparations inside the temple will be done by the Muzrai department.

"The illumination will be done on Avenue Road, Mysore Bank Circle, Hudson Circle, Corporation Building, JC Road, Cottonpete and surroundings. Directions for made for sufficient barricading, mobile toilets and their maintenance during the event" stated the minister.

Reddy also added that a meeting with stakeholders will again be held on March 10. He said that directions are made to the police and concerned officials to look for places to hold cultural events on the lines of Mysuru Dasara celebrations.

Reddy said sufficient budget will be allotted from the Central City Corporation under the Greater Bengaluru Authority (GBA), "the expenses for lighting and other arrangements outside will all be borne by the corporation, and they will settle the bills." For programmes inside the temple premises, the fund from the temple development fund will be utilized and the committee headed by C Narayanaswamy will monitor the Karaga celebrations.

C Narayanaswamy, President of the Dharmaraya Swamy Temple Karaga Committee, said the Karaga will be held for 11 days and flag hoisting is on March 24. "Veerakumaras who take out procession will fast, and Gnanendra Swamy, who has taken the Karaga for the last 15 years, is likely to lead the Karaga procession this time as well. The final decision will be taken in a meeting", said Narayanaswamy.

HOLIDAY MATHIS

28th February : Cosmic Conjunction Many of us will be assessing the value of an item, deal, relationship or focus – especially one that takes more than it gives. A conjunction of Mercury and Venus urges us to lean into subjectivity and personalize the transaction. The most pertinent question to pose is not "what's it worth?" but "what's it worth to me?"

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
True: There are things you can't unsee. Truer: Nothing you see can be unseen. Each vision that goes into your beautiful brain is stored on some level, conscious or unconscious. So put yourself where the sights will fortify and inspire you.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 - May 20)
Pleasure with purpose is the theme. It's as though the universe knows you are meant for beauty, deserving of loyalty and the perfect candidate for enjoying the comforts bestowed upon you – so savor the day.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 21)
In matters of fun, comedy and entertainment, playing it safe can be boring. Take some chances. Up the ante. It's ironic. Once you start creating more excitement, you'll see that it's not even a risky thing to do. It's something they welcome.

CANCER (June 22 - July 22)
You experience your feelings as information, not instructions, and you'll find them to be especially articulate today, telling you what is and is not working for you lately. Listen closely, then respond with care instead of reflex.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22)
You're not chasing the spotlight, but it finds and follows you anyway. Lead with playfulness and you'll get the attention that makes the game fun. Fortune favors bold joy over polished performance. Let laughter be your authority.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22)
Some plans seem to come together by magic, but of course "magic" is often a trick a long time in the making and one which takes an even longer time to practice and perfect. You're doing the work and your "ta-da" moment is coming.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 23)
There's part of you working overtime to get it right. It's admirable. Useful! Until it starts crowding the moment with second-guessing. Bypass the trouble by staying with what you're doing instead of judging it. That's when productivity gets fun.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 21)
Relationships may be hard work, but they are also delicate work best done with precision instruments. A light touch is most effective. As you already know, it's best to work from the heart instead of building intellectual arguments and strategies.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21)
Home is a starting place. It's where the story begins. As Dorothy learned from her shoes, even when you're far from your origins, they are with you in every single step. Three clicks and you're back.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19)
The emphasis is on reciprocal and uplifting relationships where energy flows both ways. They'll leave you feeling happier. When your world includes variety and mutuality, your thoughts even out, your emotions regulate and life feels lighter.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18)
Your fears and doubts are seductive. But so are your dreams. Keep coming back to your fantasies and plans. The more you add to them, change, tweak and refine them, the more they will excite and empower you.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - Mar 20)
You've gathered the information you needed, and you're making right moves. Repeat this enough and it will become second nature. Remember, mistakes don't mean you owe yourself admonishment. This is all a learning process.

GOVT DOCTORS PLAN OPD SHUTDOWN FROM MARCH 11

They say service demands, promotions ignored; Dinesh warns of action

GAYATHRI M KURUP @ Bengaluru

WITH government medical staff associations planning to shut services in government health facilities from March 11, raising concerns about access to healthcare in government hospitals, Health Minister Dinesh Gundu Rao has warned that the government is examining legal options against those who abstain from duty.

Various medical staff associations have announced a phased shutdown of services over long-pending service demands. "We have waited for more than two-and-a-half years. There is no progress on promotions, cadre rules, or filling vacant senior posts. We have no other option," said Dr Ravindranath M Meti, president, Karnataka Government Medical Officers' Association (KGMOA).

According to the association, outpatient department (OPD) services will remain closed from March 11 to 15, while emergency care will continue. From March 16, doctors plan a complete boycott of duties, including emergencies, if the government fails to act.

Meti claimed the protest has wide backing. "Around 65,000 to 80,000 staff, including National Health Mission (NHM) personnel, are supporting this movement. Let the government take action against all of us," he said, adding that senior doctors are retiring without promotions due to long-pending vacancies.

The association has apologised for inconvenience to patients, but maintains that responsibility lies with the government. "We are not slaves. The government must take care of doctors as well as patients," he said.

Responding to the strike call, Gundu Rao described the proposed service boycott as a "very serious matter" and warned that strict action would be taken if patient care is affected.

He told TNIE that disrupting essential health services and putting patients' lives at risk cannot be taken lightly, adding that the government is examining legal options against those who abstain from duty. Rao emphasised that healthcare is a critical public service and the state will act to protect patients, and the government is reviewing contingency measures to maintain services.

The minister also questioned justification for the agitation, stating that some demands, including paid deputation for postgraduate studies, would reduce available manpower while the government continues to bear salary costs. He added that alternative in-service training options exist within government hospitals.

With both sides holding firm, the standoff threatens to disrupt public healthcare services across Karnataka unless a resolution is reached.

Theft at SWR quarters: Loco pilot loses ₹12L valuables

BENGALURU: A 31-year-old loco pilot in South Western Railway has filed a complaint at the High Grounds police station after detecting a theft of gold and other valuables worth around ₹12 lakh from his official quarters on Thimmaiah Road, near the Cantonment Railway Station, in broad daylight on Thursday. R Vivek Kumar, the complainant, said the thief gained entry by picking the door's lock and committed the crime between 9.45am and noon. "Kumar and his wife had gone out to take admission for their son at a school. The accused also broke into three other flats in the quarters but could not find anything. One of these three flats was vacant and the other two were allotted to trainees. Kumar was supposed to vacate the flat in a few days as the building is marked for demolition," said the police. ENS

Civil rights activists, APU alumni support students, want FIR to be revoked

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

SEVERAL organisations in Karnataka and across India have come out in support of SPARK Reading Circle and students of Azim Premji University (APU), after the university administration filed an FIR against the students for publishing an invite for an event related to Kunan Poshpora 1991, without the permission of the university authorities.

People's Union for Civil Liberties (PUCL), National Alliance for Justice, Accountability and Rights (NAJAR), alumni of APU who studied from 2003 to 2025 and Bahutva Karnataka have criticised the university's move, and demanded that the FIR against students is revoked.

PUCL president Arvind Narain said, "The APU administration has failed to honour the constitutional mandate of Article 51-A(h), to develop a scientific temper, humanism and spirit of inquiry and reform. The role of a university is to foster discussion even on difficult issues, not shut down speech. The fact that in this case the shutting down of speech was in response to the vigilante action on APU's campus, makes APU complicit in silencing its own students and abandoning the mandate to foster a spirit of conversation."

He added, "We urge the government of Karnataka to unilaterally withdraw the prosecution which targets students, and call upon law enforcement authorities to conduct a prompt investigation, ensuring that those responsible for the attack at APU are held accountable under the law."

Meanwhile, Bahutva Karnataka has written to APU Vice-Chancellor Richa Govil to revoke the FIR filed against the students. The letter stated that the non-bailable FIR filed against SPARK Reading Circle (APU) members be withdrawn, and the intruders who assaulted students and vandalised property are punished. It also urged the university to show commitment to protecting the fundamental rights of its students.

On February 24, the university filed an FIR against SPARK Reading Circle under various sections of Bharatiya Nagarika Suraksha Samhita (BNSS). In the FIR copy, the registrar of the university stated that there is no relation between the university and SPARK Reading Circle and that it has been spreading false news against the university and defaming its name.

Nine foreigners among 16 held, drugs worth ₹2.62 crore seized

BENGALURU: Various units of the city police have arrested 16 people, including two women and nine foreign nationals, in eight NDPS cases. Drugs valued around ₹2.62 crore have been recovered. The arrests were made in Marathahalli, Vidyaranyapura, Mahadevapura, Govindapura, Chamarajpet, SR Nagar and Nandini Layout police limits. Two foreign nationals have been deported to their countries. Seven others have been sent to deportations centres. The seizure included 1.9 kg of MDMA ecstasy pills, 230g of MDMA crystal, and 48kg of hydro ganja. "The Narcotics Control Squad of CCB arrested Subhashini (44) in Bagaluru police limits and recovered drugs worth ₹2.25 crore. Subhashini along with another peddler from Nigeria, who is now absconding, operated from a rented house in Bagaluru. Subhashini handed over drugs to customers as suggested by her associate," said the police ENS

Woman stabs gym trainer boyfriend for ignoring her, surrenders to cops

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A 30-year-old woman surrendered before the Bidadi police on Thursday night after stabbing her gym trainer boyfriend in anger over his separation from her. The incident took place near the Silk Farm Quarters in Bidadi. The woman, identified as Sudha, was frustrated after the victim, Venugopal (27), started avoiding her owing to his alleged closeness with another woman. Both Sudha and Venugopal were reportedly in a relationship for nearly five years.

Venugopal is said to have distanced himself from Sudha over the past few days and is also alleged to have started avoiding her, even at the gym, and has not responded to her phone calls. On Thursday evening, Sudha, after making repeated phone calls, asked Venugopal to meet her near her house, saying she wanted to discuss something urgently. When the victim went to meet her, both of them engaged in a verbal altercation. During a heated argument, Sudha took a knife and stabbed Venugopal. Sensing danger, the victim on his own rushed to a nearby hospital.

"Sensing the gravity of her act, the woman walked to the Bidadi police station and surrendered," the police said.

Land acquisition a major hurdle for UKP-Phase 3

The project remains incomplete due to legal disputes, financial constraints, inter-state issues and rehabilitation challenges

FIROZ ROZINDAR @ Vijayapura

ONE of the major stumbling blocks in completing the Rs.70,000 crore, third phase of the Upper Krishna Project (UKP) is land acquisition.

In September 2025, the state government decided to pay Rs. 30 lakh per acre for dry land and Rs. 40 lakh per acre for irrigated land to farmers as compensation for land to be acquired. Despite this, work on the project is yet to gather pace.

The Upper Krishna Project (UKP) was conceived in 1964 as a multi-stage programme to harness the Krishna for irrigation, drinking water and power generation in the drought-prone districts of north Karnataka. The project revolves around a vast network of dams, reservoirs and canals, with Almatti dam as its keystone structure.

The Phase-III of the project aims to increase the dam's Full Reservoir Level (FRL) from 519.60 meters to 524.256 meters. Officials estimate the additional storage of around 100 tmc ft could irrigate nearly six lakh hectares (about 15 lakh acres) across Vijayapura, Bagalkot and neighbouring districts. At present, the existing storage supports irrigation to roughly three lakh hectares, meaning the project could nearly double the irrigated command area once completed.

The benefits come with heavy social costs. To execute the UKP-III, the government must acquire approximately 1.33 lakh acres of land. Of this, more than 75,000 acres will be submerged after the reservoir level rises, while additional land is required for canals and rehabilitation colonies. Around 20 villages and parts of certain town areas are expected to be affected, displacing thousands of families and transforming local economies built over generations.

Successive governments attempted to push the project forward, but progress remained uneven. Earlier compensation packages were considered inadequate, leading to protests and litigation. Rising land prices further escalated costs, making land acquisition the most expensive component of the scheme. Inter-state concerns, particularly objections from Maharashtra, also contributed to delays, as projects on interstate rivers often involve political and legal complexities.

Officials believe that a uniform and higher compensation will encourage farmers to part with land, enabling construction to proceed without prolonged disputes. Compensation is expected to be disbursed over three financial years, with a dedicated authority under the Land Acquisition Act, 2013, to oversee rehabilitation and payments.

At the same time, the state government has been pressing the Centre to issue a gazette notification permitting increase in the dam's height. Karnataka maintains that without this notification, the reservoir level cannot be raised and the additional water allocated by the tribunal cannot be officially utilized for irrigation. The delay in issuing the notification has become another major bottleneck in completing the project.

Despite this, groundwork undertaken in earlier years has positioned the state to move quickly once approval is granted. There is already an extensive canal network intended to distribute irrigation water across north Karnataka. Though the network cannot yet be fully used for irrigation due to the pending gazette notification, it is currently being used to fill hundreds of tanks in Vijayapura district. Since there is no restriction on using canal water to replenish tanks, this arrangement has helped provide drinking water and limited irrigation support in drought years.

Once the dam height is raised and the notification issued, the same canal network can be used to irrigate vast agricultural areas.

The government views the project as essential for long-term agricultural stability in north Karnataka, a region frequently affected by erratic rainfall and drought. Assured irrigation could enable multiple cropping seasons, improved yields and higher farmer incomes, while also boosting rural employment and allied industries.

Deputy Chief Minister and Water Resources Minister DK Shivakumar has stated that canal works and preliminary activities have begun in some areas and will continue alongside land acquisition.

The government has set a tentative completion timeline of about three years after substantial acquisition is completed. If executed on schedule and supported by timely approvals, the project could become fully operational before the end of the decade.

JDS leaders, including former PM HD Deve Gowda and Union Minister HD Kumaraswamy, at a party meet in Vijayapura | PIC: X

Up to Modi, Shah to make HDK state's next CM, says Deve Gowda

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Vijayapura

SHOWERING praise on Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Union Home Minister Amit Shah by describing them as "politically mature and understanding leaders", former PM and JDS supremo HD Deve Gowda has said that it is up to them to make his son HD Kumaraswamy the next CM of Karnataka.

With this, Gowda has given a clear indication that the coalition between the BJP and JDS will continue in the next Assembly elections as well.

Addressing a JDS workers' conference on account of the silver jubilee celebration of the formation of the party in Vijayapura on Friday, Gowda also hoped that the Modi-Shah duo would strengthen the NDA ties in the coming days.

"Modi and Shah are mature politicians who understand the political support offered to them by JDS. They are also aware of the pro-people policies implemented by Kumaraswamy when he was the CM. Policies such as waiving farm loans, night stay in villages etc., are known to Modi and Shah," he said, recalling the policies implemented by Kumaraswamy during his tenure as the Chief Minister.

Kumaraswamy is currently the Union Minister for Steel and Heavy Industries.

Stating that he has reached the last stage of his life, as he is 93, Gowda said that before he passes away, he will see a better and pro-people government in Karnataka.

Calling the Congress government the worst the state has seen, the veteran politician chided the guarantee schemes of the Congress.

He said that when Kumaraswamy of the CM, he waived Rs 27,000 crore worth of farm loans to make the farmers economically stronger, but the Congress government, instead of making farmers self-reliant, is offering only freebies in the name of guarantees.

On the occasion, he announced to fight for getting a gazette notification issued for Upper Krishna Project Stage III in Parliament or outside.

DKS loyalists meet over dinner, want top brass to end leadership confusion

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

THE dinner Magadi MLA HC Balakrishna hosted for 23 Congress MLAs on Thursday created a buzz in the power corridors as they are planning to meet the Congress high command in New Delhi to seek clarity on the leadership tussle in Karnataka.

According to informed sources, the party hosted by Balakrishna in a private hotel in Bengaluru on the eve of his birthday was mostly attended by the DK Shivakumar camp members, such as Shivakumar's relative Dr Ranganath, brother-in-law S Ravi, CP Yogeshwar, HV Venkatesh, Anekal Shivanna, Kadaluru Uday, Ravi Ganiga, Basavaraja Shivaganga, Sharath Bachegowda, Shantana Gowda, D Sudhakar, Satish Sail, Ramesh Bandisidde Gowda, Ganesh Hukkeri, Manthar Gowda, Prakash Koliwad, former minister TB Jayachandra, Mahendra Thammanvar, and Nayana Motamma. Shivakumar also reportedly paid a flying visit. One of the MLAs suggested that they should meet the high command after the ensuing budget session. A senior legislator, however, opined that unless Shivakumar takes a concrete call, there is no need to meet the central leaders.

"I have been saying this since the beginning that DK Shivakumar sahib gave me a party ticket and mentored me politically. He should become the CM. If circumstances demand, we would go to Delhi," Mudigere MLA Nayana Motamma told reporters on Friday. She is the daughter of veteran Dalit leader and former minister C Motamma. Further, she said that several issues, including politics, were discussed. "We hope that the confusion related to the leadership crisis will be resolved soon. It is not like the CM is chosen only by the MLAs... the high command will decide," she elaborated.

No one needs to go to Delhi to lobby for me, says DKS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

KARNATAKA Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar on Friday said there was no need for anyone to go to Delhi to lobby for him. "I appeal to everyone not to go to Delhi to lobby for me. If you have personal requests or are aspiring for Cabinet positions, you can go to Delhi. But you don't need to go to Delhi to bat for me," Shivakumar, who is the state Congress chief, said.

Asked if the dinner meeting was a show of strength, he said, "No show of strength. Some MLAs travel abroad for leisure and study tours, some go to Delhi, and some meet for dinners. What they do for personal reasons has nothing to do with the party".

When his attention was drawn to statements by some MLAs that they would like to see him as the CM, he said, "I don't know about it. No one has personally spoken to me about it. Some have aspirations; it is natural for newcomers to aspire to become ministers. Dr G Parameshwara, HK Patil, Mahadevappa, Siddaramaiah, and I became ministers at a very young age. We are all old now. Newcomers are expressing their desire to become ministers. I will bring this to the attention of the party leaders in Delhi".

Dalit leaders upset with Kharge over CM tussle

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

WITH the DK Shivakumar camp going all out to project him as the only leader who deserve to succeed Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, a section of senior Dalit leaders are reportedly upset with the AICC president Mallikarjuna Kharge.

Home Minister Dr. G Parameshwara and Food and Civil Supplies Minister K H Muniyappa had met Kharge urging him to take over as CM. But the decision has to be taken by Congress Parliamentary Party (CPP) chief Sonia Gandhi and LoP in LS Rahul Gandhi.

Kharge's term in Rajya Sabha ends in June and if the party re-nominates him he will continue in national politics. But it is to be seen whether he will remain as AICC president, a senior Congress leader said.

Veteran Dalit leader Damodaram Sanjeevayya became the second CM of Andhra Pradesh (between 1969-62) while remaining as AICC president. Now, Kharge has an opportunity to achieve that feat, the leaders had suggested to Kharge.

"We welcome Kharge as CM or else he should consider a Dalit for the top post to create history. Otherwise, history will curse him for throwing an opportunity despite being at the helm of affairs of the Congress," a senior leader told TNIE.

Dalit legislators including Hubli-Dharwad East MLA Abbayya Prasad and Bangarapet MLA S N Narayanaswamy said Parameshwara should be the CM as he had contributed to the party's organisation as KPCC president for eight years.

Parameshwara, a Dalit leader himself, has thrown his hat into the leadership ring and said no one can question his competence to be the CM.

Document upgradation of 20,000 temples under way: Ramalinga Reddy

BENGALURU: Karnataka Muzrai Minister Ramalinga Reddy said around 17,500 acres in rural and urban properties belonging to the Muzrai department are documented and the process of documenting around 20,000 more temple properties is underway. Addressing media after the first 'Vision Group' meeting which was set up to develop 'C' category temples, he said, " Additional Chief Secretary Revenue Department Rajendra Kumar Kataria, former minister Ramanath Rai and a few others were present and it was decided to give directions to Assistant Director of Land Records to double the target of temple document upgradation.

At present, monthly, five temple documents have to be upgraded, and now it is 10. Once the process is completed, it will be gazetted, and a book will be published." Reddy said it had been decided to geo-fence all the temples and temple assets and provide required amount for this from the General Collection Fund.

Cops file suo motu case against Yatnal

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

Police in Gurmitkal, Yadgir district, registered a suo motu case against former BJP MLA Basanagouda Patil Yatnal for an alleged hate speech targeting Father of the Nation Mahatma Gandhi and the first PM Jawaharlal Nehru, at a public event. The case was filed following Yatnal's controversial remarks at a Shivaji Jayanti celebration held in Gurmitkal on February 21.

According to the FIR, the MLA made several provocative and objectionable statements about national leaders and allegedly referred to "love jihad", targeting a specific community. Police said the speech, widely circulated on news and social media platforms, sparked public outrage and was seen as an attempt to disturb communal harmony. After reviewing video recordings of the speech and conducting a preliminary inquiry, police registered a suo motu case under several sections of Bharatiya Nyaya Samhita. The sections pertain to promoting enmity between groups on grounds of religion, race, place of birth, residence or language, and acts prejudicial to communal harmony, deliberate and malicious acts intended to outrage religious feelings, uttering words with deliberate intent to wound religious sentiments, intentional insult with intent to provoke breach of peace, statements conducive to public mischief etc. Police confirmed investigation is under way. In his speech, Yatnal reportedly claimed he doesn't accept Gandhi as the "father of the nation" or Nehru as India's first Prime Minister. He claimed that Subhas Chandra Bose was the country's first PM. He allegedly made disparaging remarks about Gandhi's role in India's freedom struggle, questioning whether spinning the charkha led to independence. Opposition leaders accused the MLA of unnecessarily attempting to inflame communal tensions. Yadgir SP Prithvi Shankar confirmed to TNIE that one case was filed against him, invoking five sections.

Muniyappa PS' wife now B'luru Rural DC

BENGALURU: Congress govt elevating Food & Civil Supplies Minister KH Muniyappa's personal secretary's wife KN Anuradha as Bengaluru Rural deputy commissioner, leaving incumbent AB Basavaraj without a post, has triggered a controversy. Anuradha was ZP CEO for two-and-half years, and will continue hold charge concurrently. But Basavaraj, who was posted as DC a year ago, was shown the door. There were allegations that Devanahalli MLA Muniyappa had been accommodating his people in key and 'plum' posts in Bengaluru Rural district.

Justice delivered, says Shivakumar on SC bail for MLA Vinay Kulkarni

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

RESPONDING to the Supreme Court granting bail to Congress MLA Vinay Kulkarni, Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar on Friday said that justice had been delivered. "There is a limit to harassment. The Yediyurappa government had handed over the case to the CBI. He (Vinay) was barred from entering his own constituency, from seeking votes, but we respected court orders. The court has noticed all this and given him bail. It is a victory for him, his family and the people of his constituency. I have also gone through harassment. I pray to God to give strength to Vinay Kulkarni to deal with this and thank court for giving justice," he stated.

Asked about the Cabinet decision on filling up vacancies, he clarified that though the government has a new reservation scheme, it will be complete recruitment for 56,000 posts under the old order of 2022. "We had promised jobs for the youth and will deliver it. We have to fill up one lakh posts, but have decided to do it in a phased manner to ensure opportunities for everyone. Eventually, we have to fill up about 2.84 lakh jobs, but it will be done in phases," he said.

Cabinet nod for Cauvery 6th Stage

He termed the cabinet approving Cauvery 6th Stage project as a historic decision. "We are planning 6th Stage at a cost of Rs 7,000 crore, keeping in mind population growth of the city. We are taking financial help from JICA. I had approved 6tmcft of water for Bengaluru as soon as I took office," he said.

To a question on GBA elections, he said the process was going on as per court orders.

Three people were arrested in Shivamogga for a cyber fraud scheme that allegedly defrauded victims of more than Rs 82 crore across 352 cases nationwide. The police seized 15 mule bank accounts held in various names, two mobile phones, 11 ATM cards, nine QR code scanners and 15 Airtel SIM cards from the accused

Let's make Karnataka rabies-free, snakebite-resilient by 2023: Govt

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka government on Friday launched two major public health initiatives- the State Action Plan for Rabies Elimination (SAPRE) and the State Action Plan for Prevention and Control of Snakebite Envenoming (SAPSE). These are aimed at preventing avoidable deaths and strengthening emergency care across Karnataka. It also aligns with national goals and adopts a One Health strategy involving multiple departments and community participation.

Under SAPRE, the State has reaffirmed its commitment to eliminate dog-mediated human rabies by 2030. Rabies, will be monitored through strengthened surveillance and reporting systems. Free anti-rabies vaccines (ARV) and rabies immunoglobulin (RIG) are being provided at all government health facilities. Private hospitals are directed to maintain adequate stocks and provide immediate treatment without insisting on advance payment. State and district-level steering committees are formed to ensure coordination.

The "Rabies-Free Cities Initiative" will be implemented in 11 major urban centres. City task force will focus on mass dog vaccinations, dog population management, waste control, and public awareness. Schools will integrate rabies prevention into health programmes. Veterinary and urban bodies will lead vaccination drives and stray dog management. Complementing this, SAPSE targets a significant reduction in snakebite-related deaths and disabilities by 2030. Snakebite cases declared notifiable in Karnataka, must be reported to improve response and surveillance. The Health Department has ensured adequate stocks of anti-snake venom, identified treatment centres, and mandated life-saving treatment without advance payment. The snakebite plan emphasises community awareness, early transport to health facilities, prompt anti-snake venom administration, and rehabilitation. Departments including Panchayat Raj, Forest, Education, Labour, and Police are assigned for rural awareness, school curriculum updates, workplace safety, and curbing snake trafficking.

The government urged citizens to seek immediate medical care for animal bites and snakebites, complete prescribed treatments, and support awareness efforts to achieve a rabies-free and snakebite-resilient Karnataka by 2030.

Karnataka expands ABArK scheme to fully support rare disease patients

Bengaluru: The state government issued an order to provide full financial coverage for treatment of secondary complications in rare disease patients from non-priority household (NPHH) families under the ABArK scheme, on a pilot basis. The decision aligns with the National Policy for Rare Diseases (NPRD), 2021, and aims to reduce the financial burden on families managing long-term complications of rare diseases. The benefit will apply to patients registered at the Indira Gandhi Institute of Child Health, Bengaluru, while priority household (PHH) beneficiaries will continue to receive support as per existing guidelines. The pilot programme will be implemented by the Suvarna Arogya Suraksha Trust with an overall financial ceiling of Rs 1 crore. The trust has been directed to monitor the implementation and submit a report on outcomes before the funds are exhausted, to help the government decide on extending the scheme.

HC: Tahsildars should offer time-bound delivery of services

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

The Karnataka High Court directed the Principal Secretary (Revenue) to ensure that notice boards in tahsildar offices furnish information regarding pending and disposed of applications as per the Karnataka Sakala Services Act, 2011.

Justice R Devdas passed the order, disposing of the petition filed by Annapurneshwari Builders and three others directing the tahsildar of Bengaluru North Taluk to enter the names of the petitioners in revenue records pursuant to the registered sale deed. A cost of Rs 500 was levied on the tahsildar payable to the petitioner, along with a copy of the order that would be furnished by him to the petitioner, the judge said.

The court stated it is surprising that the competent officers have not complied with the provisions of the Act by not monitoring the applications, not providing information on notice boards and not taking action against tahsildars for failure to provide services within the time stipulated in the Act, it added.

The petitioners moved the high court, alleging that the tahsildar has not entered their name in the revenue records as per the registered sale deed dated March 15, 2023.

They contended that the provisions of Sections 127 and 128 of the Karnataka Land Revenue Act, 1964 provide that the purchasers under registered sale deeds need not file an application seeking mutation entry of their names in the revenue records since the purchasers would have paid the requisite fee to enable the Sub-Registrar to generate a 'J' slip, which is forwarded to the tahsildar, who is required to enter purchasers' names in the revenue records.

The petitioners gave a representation on December 2, 2025, th0ugh they had given applications in 2023. But the Tahsildar had not passed any orders mutating and entering the names of the petitioners in the revenue records, they alleged.

This court is being flooded with such writ petitions. If tahsildars do their duty, there is no need for the purchasers to come before the court, the court observed.

Two arrested for stealing ₹91L from real estate firm, ₹81L recovered

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

AN employee of a real estate firm along with his friend have been arrested by the Sadashivanagar police on charges of stealing around Rs 91 lakh in cash from his work place on BEL Road on February 20.

The main accused, Dhananjay, who was working as an accountant-cum-cashier had a clear idea of the daily transactions. He then hatched a plot along with three friends to steal the cash. The police have recovered about Rs 81 lakh and the remaining amount has been spent by the accused. Search for two more accused is on. Praveen Naik is the other arrested. Thippesh and Sunil are yet to be nabbed. All the accused hail from Shivamogga and Davanagere. The realtor, in his complaint stated that he had kept Rs 1.76 crore in the office. The accused had gained entry by breaking open the glass panel. Of the Rs 1.76 crore, the accused had stolen around Rs 91 lakh. Two days later, Naik was arrested in Shivamogga. The car used in the crime was also recovered. Based on Naik's statements, cashier from the office was arrested. The accused claims to have committed the theft to become rich. "We recovered the cash from the father of another accused, who is yet to be arrested, at a house in Shivamogga," said the police.

Officials from the Social Welfare Department and district administration inaugurate the government barber shop at Singatalur village in Gadag district

Action will be taken for social boycott: Tahsildar

"Refusal to provide barber services and denial of entry into hotels and temples are illegal acts. The Social Welfare Department and district administration are organising awareness programmes to eradicate social evils. If such discriminatory practices are found anywhere, strict legal action will be taken" Tahsildar PS Erriswamy said.

Dalit activist Kariyappa Gudimani said the government opening a dedicated barber shop is a welcome move, but will not fulfill the actual spirit of harmony. "Despite an existing law, many villages in North Karnataka and Kalyana Karnataka practice untouchability. The problem has been persisting in Gadag and Koppal districts for a long time. Dalits should be able to enter any temple, barber shop or hotel without being stopped. They face indiscrimination even when they go to provision stores in villages. Will the government open a shop for them," he asked.

'Zero-duty, fibre crunch alarms local paper mills'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

AT the inauguration of IPPTA AGM & Seminar, the Indian paper industry urged for urgent policy intervention to protect its domestic manufacturing base from the dual threats of zero-duty imports and a severe domestic fibre shortage. Pavan Khaitan, President of the Indian Pulp and Paper Technical Association (IPPTA) said, "The Indian paper sector is at a critical crossroad. While we are driving the nation's transition to sustainable, plastic-free packaging, our domestic manufacturing base is under severe threat."

Pavan said, "The sharp rise in paper and paperboard imports from China and ASEAN countries at zero or low duty is placing immense financial pressure on domestic mills that are simultaneously investing heavily in green technologies. We urgently need a level playing field against these low-priced imports"

Dilip Chandarana, Secretary of IPPTA, said, "India is fundamentally a fibre-deficient country. Due to inefficient and fragmented waste-paper collection systems, we remain heavily dependent on imported wastepaper, which exposes the industry to intense global price volatility." Rising energy and raw material costs have significantly increased operational expenses, impacting profitability across the sector.

IPPTA clarified that the Indian paper industry utilizes absolutely no forest wood. Nearly 75% of the paper produced in India is based on recycled fibre, making it one of the highest recycling-oriented sectors globally. They said that by converting agricultural residues like bagasse and straw into valuable pulp, the industry provides a direct, commercial solution to reduce the national crisis of agricultural stubble burning.

State's credit potential up 12%: NABARD

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

NATIONAL Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development (NABARD), Karnataka regional office, organised the State Credit Seminar for the year 2026-27, at its office on KG Road on Friday. Minister for Health and Family Welfare Dinesh Gundu Rao chaired the seminar and released the State Focus Paper for FY 2026-27.

Rao stated that in the current financial year, disbursements by NABARD has reached 25,189 crore, of which 21,560 crore is refinance to banks, particularly to cooperative banks, and 3,629 crore support is given to the Government of Karnataka under RIDF for critical infrastructure.

Dr Surendra Babu, Chief General Manager (CGM), NABARD, Karnataka regional office, stated that for FY 2026-27, NABARD assessed an exploitable credit potential of 4.99 lakh crore, a 12% increase over the previous year.

Agriculture and allied sectors account for 45%, while MSMEs comprise 2.14 lakh crore or 42% of the total potential and other priority sector activities at Rs.0.57 lakh crore (11.62%).

During FY 2025-26, as on date, an amount of 21,560 crore has been disbursed to various financial institutions as refinance, of which 13,982 crore was for financing of seasonal agricultural operations and 7,580 crore for investment credit to foster capital formation in agriculture, he added.

In a presentation on State Focus Paper, Sreeja Nair, DGM, NABARD, covered sector-wise projections of credit potential made by NABARD in the state, including infrastructure and policy support required from the state government.

From Village Roots to a Homegrown Super App: The VishwasPe Journey

In a digital payments landscape dominated by global capital and large incumbents, the emergence of VishwasPe represents a rare attempt to build a comprehensive, Indian-owned super app rooted in local realities. Founded by Vishwas, an entrepreneur from an agricultural family in Periyapatna Taluk of Mysuru district, VishwasPe is often described as India's answer to PhonePe, not because it imitates existing platforms, but because it attempts to widen the very purpose of a fintech app.

Vishwas's journey begins far from boardrooms and venture capital circuits. Born and raised in a rural environment, he grew up watching his parents work as farmers. Though not formally educated, they placed unwavering importance on their children's education. Vishwas completed his B.Com from Vijayanagara Vasavi Evening College, a phase that coincided with his early exposure to the realities of employment and survival in urban India. When he moved to Bengaluru, opportunities were scarce. One of his earliest jobs paid him twenty rupees per missed call as part of a marketing campaign. What appeared insignificant at the time became a turning point. His dedication and execution caught attention, and within a month he was flown to Delhi for intensive training, where he spent two years learning leadership, regional market dynamics, and large-scale operations.

His professional growth continued across several well-known digital and e-commerce platforms including Softclues, Amazon, Flipkart, Paytm, and PhonePe. Working closely on South Indian market strategies, Vishwas gained first-hand exposure to how large digital ecosystems are built, scaled, and monetised. More importantly, he also observed their limitations. While these platforms were efficient, they were narrowly transactional. Over time, he became convinced that India needed a more inclusive digital platform, one that went beyond payments and addressed education, employment, and regional content.

The decision to build VishwasPe was not immediate, nor was it simple. While a basic app can be developed in a few months, building a legally compliant fintech platform in India is a long and demanding process. Over nearly eight years, Vishwas and his team navigated RBI regulations, compliance audits, payment gateway integrations, backend and frontend architecture, and security frameworks. In the early stages, there was no in-house technology team. Development was fragmented across multiple external teams before internal capabilities were gradually built. Today, VishwasPe operates with a core team of around sixty professionals, supported by a wider organisation of nearly 250 employees.

Vishwaspe

GET IT ON Google Play

Download on the App Store

The first VishwasPe app was launched on September 18, initially as a domestic test. The response was immediate. Around 1.5 lakh users downloaded and used the app within a single day. A second app followed on July 27, strengthening the platform's feature set. The user base has since grown to approximately 2.5 lakh subscribers. The platform is integrated with RBI's UPI Bolt, enabling direct bank account integration. Certain features such as QR codes require additional regulatory approvals, and these processes are ongoing, reflecting the cautious pace required in regulated sectors.

Entering a space dominated by players like PhonePe and Google Pay brought legal and competitive pressure. VishwasPe faced a legal challenge from PhonePe related to naming conventions. The case was heard in the Chennai court, where VishwasPe secured a favourable outcome, with the High Court clarifying usage rights. The episode underscored an important reality for Indian startups operating in regulated and competitive domains. Compliance, documentation, and legal clarity are as critical as innovation itself.

What differentiates VishwasPe is its attempt to function as a true super app. Alongside digital payments and utility services, the platform integrates education support, employment assistance, HR management systems, and entertainment. One of its most distinctive features is job support integration. When users complete routine transactions such as mobile recharges, the app prompts them to indicate whether they are seeking employment. Those who opt in have their details routed to an internal team that connects them with job interviews at no cost. This directly addresses a widespread issue in India, where young job seekers are often charged high fees by placement agencies without guaranteed outcomes.

Education is another pillar of the platform. VishwasPe offers free access, for up to forty hours, to five years of previous question papers with answers for students from SSLC to engineering, including CBSE curricula. By embedding these resources within a payments app, the platform attempts to reduce dependence on expensive coaching systems and make exam preparation more accessible.

On the enterprise side, VishwasPe has introduced Vishwas HRMS, an automated human resource management system that handles attendance, salaries, provident fund, ESI, appointment letters, and exit processes. For employees, particularly in garments and manufacturing sectors, the system also offers utility payment discounts, translating into measurable monthly savings.

Cultural inclusion is another deliberate choice. Through its OTT integration, VishwasPe promotes Kannada films and regional content, addressing a gap left by mainstream platforms that prioritise national or global programming. With over seven crore Kannada speakers, the focus on regional language content is both cultural and strategic.

Today, VishwasPe operates from MG Road in Bengaluru, with business interests in Delhi and exploratory collaborations in Dubai. The organisation reports an annual turnover of around one hundred crore rupees. Vishwas, now thirty-seven, remains closely involved in operations, shaped by the memory of his early struggles and incremental growth.

Rather than projecting VishwasPe as a disruptor driven by hype, the story is one of persistence, compliance, and grounded ambition. As India searches for digital platforms that reflect its diversity and socioeconomic realities, VishwasPe positions itself not merely as an alternative to PhonePe, but as an Indian super app attempting to widen the purpose of fintech itself.

CM urges industry leaders to promote ethical gaming

Avoid glorifying violence, safeguard the mental well-being of children, says Siddaramaiah

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

AS we encourage innovation in animation and gaming, we must also uphold responsibility, promoting an ethical game design that avoids glorifying violence, safeguards the mental well-being of children and encourages creativity, critical thinking and positive social values, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah told animation, visual effects, gaming and comics (AVGC) industry experts on Friday.

Siddaramaiah was speaking at the inauguration of the 7th edition of GAFX Summit 2026 in Bengaluru on Friday. "With a potential to create 20 lakh jobs in the next five years, this sector generates employment across design, coding, storytelling, music, motion capture, AI modelling and production management. It integrates art, mathematics, psychology and technology," he said.

The CM urged the industry experts and entrepreneurs to nurture youngsters who are already working on global cinema projects, international gaming franchises and world-class animation pipelines. He said, "Karnataka's talent is contributing to Hollywood, global OTT platforms, international gaming studios and next-generation immersive experiences. We must nurture this momentum through structured skill development. Universities, engineering colleges, design schools, polytechnics – all must integrate AVGC-XR skills into mainstream education."

The government is supporting the AVGC sector – popularly known as Orange Economy – through the Centre of Excellence in Bengaluru and AVGC-XR Policy 2024–29 and aims to look beyond Bengaluru. "We are promoting digital creative clusters in Mysuru, Mangaluru, Hubballi–Dharwad, Kalaburagi and other emerging cities. We want the next great game designer or VFX innovator to emerge not only from the capital, but from every district of Karnataka," Siddaramaiah said.

Siddaramaiah also stressed that cutting-edge technology like AI has posed some important questions, including whether it would replace artists or automate creativity, and whether creativity be compromised.

The CM said, "Our answer must be balanced and humane. AI must remain a tool and not a substitute for human imagination. We must ensure ethical usage of AI. Respect for intellectual property, data privacy, fair compensation and skill upgradation must be central. As a government, we are committed to policies that protect human creators and users while empowering them with new tools.We will ensure that progress is inclusive. The digital revolution must not widen inequality; it must democratize opportunity."

In order to make Bengaluru a creative capital of the digital world, Siddaramaiah said that the government has taken up five strategic priorities. These strategies include building a large and future-ready talent pipeline, strengthening academia–industry collaboration, upgrading infrastructure and production ecosystems, studios and motion capture facilities. These must be accessible and affordable, supporting startups and original intellectual property, expanding opportunities beyond Bengaluru and deepening collaborations with international studios and investors, he said.

TO TRAIN 50,000 STUDENTS BY 2028

Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar said that while Karnataka already has a foundation for AVGC development in Bengaluru, the government's target is to train about 50,000 students in the AVGC-XR category by 2028. He said, "About 70% of the employees are creative professionals. Through this, the target is to create more than 30,000 high-quality jobs by 2028 and train 50,000 students who graduate from the college." Shivakumar added, "With an eye on the future, 6,50,000 employees in Karnataka have been trained on AI skills in 2023–24. Compared to 2022, AI-related training and activities have increased by 9% in 2023. This increase will put Karnataka at the forefront of future technology growth. Many startups are emerging from Karnataka in areas like gaming, real-time content creation, AI-based animation. Our government will work to foster new innovations and collaborations by connecting startups with investors, global studios and research institutes."

Bengaluru all set to get COE in gaming

RASHMI PATIL @ Bengaluru

BENGALURU is all set to have a centre of excellence (COE) in gaming and host a gaming summit to encourage youngsters pursue career opportunities in the sector.

Addressing a panel discussion on Karnataka's Creative Growth Blueprint: Policy, Innovation and Investment at the 7th edition of GAFX 2026, Pramod Patil, the general manager of events and promotions at AVGC, a wing of the department of IT&BT, said, "In order to attract more youngsters to gaming and also to boost the existing startups in Bengaluru that have invested in this sector, the state government will establish a COE in gaming in Bengaluru. Tenders have been floated, and we are expecting some private firms to invest in it. Our department has allocated Rs 10 crore for the same, however, it is not sufficient. If private firms take interest, the investment can be expanded."

Patil added, "The department is also planning to host a separate summit for gaming, so that more companies from across the globe can come forward to contribute to this sector."

Gauri Sriram, a co-founder of Studio56 Animation said the current AVGC-XR 2024–29 policy must also include provisions to support animation studios and startups in terms of marketing and distribution cost of the projects. She said, "It is a matter of pride that Bengaluru-based project 'Mission Santa: Yoyo to the Rescue' saw a theatrical release and ran successfully in theatres for three weeks. But when such big projects are released, studios have to be supported by the government in terms of distribution and marketing costs. It is one way to keep the AVGC sector going."

Viren of Zebu studios stressed that there is a need for a separate policy to limit the use of AI in the AVGC sector, so that the technology doesn't kill jobs of artists and creators. "I am working on drafting the policy in collaboration with the Indian Institute of Science. The final version of the draft will be soon submitted to the department of IT&BT," he said.

Will ensure 7-hr nonstop power to irrigation pumpsets: Min

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

ENERGY Minister KJ George said on Friday that the state government is committed to providing seven-hour uninterrupted power supply to farm pumpsets and work on solarisation of agricultural feeders under KUSUM-C scheme is being expedited.

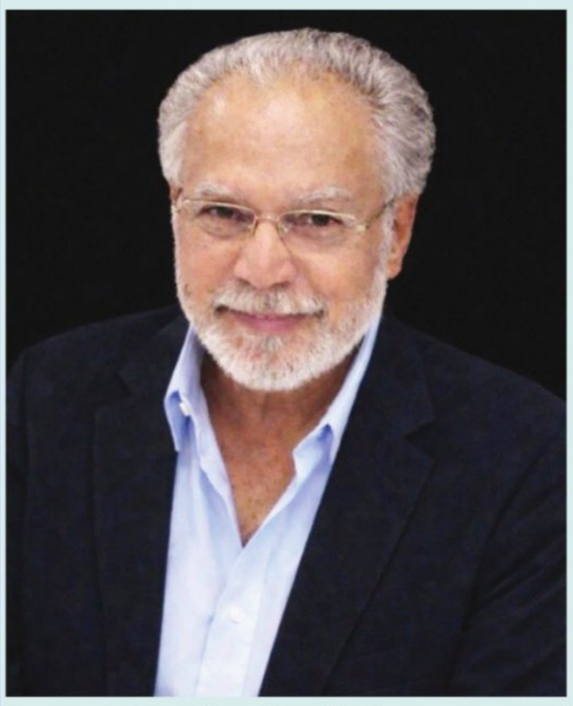
Speaking after meeting Congress leaders and workers at the KPCC office here, he said, "Under the KUSUM-C scheme, we are solarising substations that supply power for agriculture with a target of generating 2,500 MW, ensuring seven hours of power supply to farmers."

George said under the scheme, the government is providing solar pumpsets with around 80% subsidy, the highest in the country. This is a revolutionary move by the energy department for the growth of the agriculture sector.

Stating that the energy department is making a significant contribution to the state's progress, he said under the Gruha Jyothi scheme, up to 200 units of free electricity is being provided to domestic consumers. The department is utilising all opportunities for the welfare of the people, especially farmers, he added.

By integrating solar energy with farm activities, the government is reducing the burden on transformers and curbing power theft. "We have achieved progress in power generation and transmission," George said.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF JUSTIN LAWRENCE CAMOENS



Lawrence Justinian (Justin) Camoens passed away peacefully on January 26th 2026. Named for the Saint on whose feast he was born 77 years ago, he was in many ways an anchor in turbulent waters for our family. In the wake of tragedy and hardship, he was often the dependable one. The problem solver. The practical and pragmatic center of gravity in our lives. A loyal son, a supportive brother. A caring uncle. For his younger siblings, in the aftermath of our father's death, he was sometimes a surrogate parent, too.

He was, often, an exemplar of persistence in the face of challenges. A light in dark times. A source of humor when there was sorrow. Above all, he was forthright in pursuing the best course, as he perceived it, for everyone's good fortune. Logical to a fault. Clever, charming, and fiercely intelligent.

Of course, he was also imperfect, and complex, as are we all. The reality of his virtue was tempered by his flaws. He could be quick to anger and stubborn as a mule. The spirit which animated him in his youth never left him, and never fell far from his every deed, even into old age. He remained, as ever, fundamentally concerned with the good of his fellow man, through and through.

That is also what will make his absence truly difficult to bear.

He inherited a love of classics, a deep appreciation of art and music and an avid interest in mathematics from his father. He read voraciously throughout his youth, quoting at will from Shakespeare, Shelley and Byron. He relished listening to and attending the symphony and the opera, gravitating especially toward the bright and mellow tones of the violin, having mastered the instrument in his youth.

In this world, which can often seem so cruel, so heartless and so unwelcoming, day after day, we feel the void left by someone who abhorred the bully and looked to defend the vulnerable, all the more sharply. It is also the mark of an impressively rich legacy - the example he set, the work he undertook and the accomplishments he achieved - that he leaves.

In short, a brilliant light has gone out for us. His loss leaves our worlds a bit darker. But to honor his memory- to live the sort of lives that he would celebrate in turn - we would do well to remember the travels of Ulysses - the Odyssey we must all make in our own time and our own way - and in the words penned by one of his most favored poets:

'T is not too late to seek a newer world.
Push off, and sitting well in order smite
The sounding furrows; for my purpose holds
To sail beyond the sunset, and the baths
Of all the western stars, until I die.
It may be that the gulfs will wash us down:
It may be we shall touch the Happy Isles,
And see the great Achilles, whom we knew.
Tho' much is taken, much abides; and tho'
We are not now that strength which in old days
Moved earth and heaven, that which we are, we are;
One equal temper of heroic hearts,
Made weak by time and fate, but strong in will
To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.

We owe him much and not least, to live up to the best versions of ourselves, whom he believed us capable of inhabiting.

As Hamlet says of his father, so could we say of him: "He was a man, take him for all in all; I shall not look upon his like again."

All will miss you, Justin, and we will always love you.

DIGITAL SKILLS NEEDED

AI, cyber safety now in govt workers' computer lit test

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru

TO familiarise government employees with emerging technologies, the Karnataka government has revised the syllabus of the Computer Literacy Test, making artificial intelligence (AI) and cyber security key components. This is to ensure safer and more secure digital operations and to enable faster and more efficient functioning of government offices.

The test is conducted under the Karnataka Civil Services (Computer Literacy Test) Rules, 2012. The syllabus till now primarily focused on basic desktop computing skills, including Windows file management, MS Word (editing and formatting), MS Excel (spreadsheets and charts), PowerPoint presentations and internet usage, such as sending emails and browsing. That was to help transition government offices towards paperless administration.

The revised syllabus, which is available with The New Indian Express and issued on February 20, contains cyber security fundamentals and awareness. These include understanding computer viruses and their impact, detection and prevention methods, common cyber threats and mitigation strategies, cyber safety practices and social media etiquette.

The updated syllabus also includes artificial intelligence and generative AI, reflecting the growing relevance of these technologies in governance and administration.

The test is mandatory for all government employees in Groups A, B, and C, excluding drivers and attenders. The maximum marks is 100 and the test is for two hours that can be taken online. When the test was first conducted in 2017, over 2.2 lakh employees appeared, but many failed. They were allowed to take a retest.

A senior government official said, "As times change, there is a need to change and update ourselves. We are trying to equip our employees with the latest computer knowledge. Karnataka being the pioneer in IT, it is important for us to make it robust." The official said, "There have been instances where our websites were hacked. We have made our websites stronger with anti-hacking technologies. But hackers also update themselves with the latest technologies. There is always the fear of being hacked. We will make our employees aware of this, so that there are no mistakes."

Aspirants seek fixed timeline for KEA, KPSCA exams

RASHMI PATIL @ Bengaluru

EVEN as the state government announced filling up of 56,342 vacant posts within a month, students and faculty members from various coaching institutions training aspirants for competitive exams urged the state government, Karnataka Public Service Commission (KPSC) and Karnataka Examination Authority (KEA) to release a timeline for the exams every year, like the Union Public Service Commission (UPSC).

This facilitates filling of vacant posts, reducing unemployment and waiting period for aspirants, irrespective of parties in power, they said.

Shashank KN, a faculty at a private institution, said, "Last year, I saw female candidates opting for abortion while waiting for PSI results as the final round is a physical test. None of the parties that come to power in the state understand the depth of the pain, hardwork and financial constraints that candidates go through. KPSC is a constitutional body and it must act like one. They must make it mandatory to release a timetable of exam dates that will be scheduled for this year or even 2027. Even if it is 150 posts, they must make sure to conduct exams and fill them as soon as possible." Arjun Boppanna, another faculty member, said, "I saw one of my students joining a state government job at the age of 55 as he belonged to the ex-military servicemen category. But he wrote the exams when he was 45 and got results when he was 55. Timetable of exams will give clarity to students to prepare for various exams like NABARD, banking, railways and others."

A student, who has spent four years preparing for various competitive exams, said on condition of anonymity, "It is depressing to wait for the government to release results of KPSC exams that happened in 2023. I cleared prelims and wrote KPSC mains for the post of gazetted probationers Group A and B in May 2024. I am waiting for results so that I can prepare for an interview. Mounting loans, mental pressure, depression are part of the preparation. But in the end, they must yield results."

Another student who has also cleared mains for the same exam said, "This is my last ray of hope. If the government doesn't release results, I will go back to my hometown to work as a teacher in a private school."

Bank seeks ₹9.34; coffee grower asks 66p back

Hassan: Nine rupees and 34 paisa. That was the amount Canara Bank wanted one of its long-time customers to pay towards a loan that was settled over five years ago. The furious customer, Chokkanna Gowda, a coffee planter, stormed into the bank branch at Sakleshpur on Friday, filled the deposit challan for Rs 9.34 and paid Rs 10. As the bank wanted the exact Rs 9.34, he demanded that bank officials return to him the exact change of 66 paise. As the cashier sat in stunned silence, Gowda protested in front of the bank demanding that they settle his 66 paise change. He said bank officials humiliated him by sending him a demand notice for a piddly sum, when he has transacted lakhs of rupees through the branch. The amount in question was towards the Rs 50,000 loan he had taken five years ago which he had cleared. Later, officials approached Gowda and pacified him, citing a computer mistake.

Jaya's confidant, 3-time TN CM OPS joins DMK

EPS accused Panneerselvam of betraying party

AGENCIES @Chennai

THREE-time AIADMK Chief Minister O Panneerselvam, who held top party positions before his expulsion in 2022, on Friday joined the DMK in the presence of its president and Tamil Nadu CM M K Stalin in what is seen as a shot in the arm for the ruling party ahead of the elections. A trusted confidant of the late AIADMK supremo J Jayalalithaa, Ottakara Thevar Panneerselvam, popularly known as OPS, joined arch rival DMK, after unsuccessfully struggling for over three years to rejoin his parent outfit.

OPS joining the DMK is expected to strengthen the ruling party more in southern districts where the Mukkulathor community wields solid electoral influence.

Incidentally, OPS, an MLA, is the last man in his camp to move out while his prominent supporters including V Vaithilingam and P H Manoj Pandian had already joined the DMK. Others including JCD Prabhakar joined the TVK. Rajya Sabha MP R Dharmar is the only noted OPS supporter to accept the leadership of AIADMK chief Edappadi K Palaniswami.

The legal battles OPS had initiated over his expulsion, targeting the AIADMK brass led by Palaniswami (EPS) did not succeed. EPS had, over the recent years, often labelled OPS as a 'betrayer.' EPS had often alleged that OPS supported the DMK by his actions and the former always questioned the latter's loyalty to the AIADMK. OPS himself said on February 20 that the DMK has the edge and it would win assembly polls. A party worker soon after the AIADMK's founding in 1972, he had been the chief minister thrice (2001-02, 2014-15 and 2016-17) and had held plum portfolios including finance, revenue and public works in his long stint in the governments led by the AIADMK.

HC lifts stay, clears release of 'The Kerala Story 2'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Kochi

THE Kerala High Court on Friday granted permission for the release of 'The Kerala Story 2 – Goes Beyond', staying a single judge's order halting the film's screening for 15 days. The order will pave the way for the release of the film in more than 1,800 theatres across the country and in 355 centres abroad.

A division bench comprising Justice Sushrut Arvind Dharmadhikari and Justice P V Balakrishnan issued the order on an appeal filed by Vipul Amrutlal Shah, proprietor of Sunshine Pictures, Mumbai, seeking to quash the single judge's order.

The division bench, which had reserved its order after an urgent hearing that lasted around two hours on Thursday night, passed the interim order at 4pm on Friday.

The division bench, stated that once a certificate has been issued, there is, prima facie, a presumption that the authority concerned has taken into account all the guidelines, including public order.

"Merely on the basis of a few clippings and without viewing the movie, the finding of the single judge that the guidelines for certification had not been borne in mind by the Central Board of Film Certification (CBFC) while granting certification cannot be countenanced," it said.

The court noted that insertions, excisions, and modifications carried out by the makers of the film as per the directions of the CBFC further reinforce the fact that there was due application of mind on the part of the CBFC while granting the certificate.

Judiciary cut through web of lies, says Kavitha on clean chit in Delhi liquor case

AGENCIES @Hyderabad

TELANGANA Jagruthi president K Kavitha on Friday expressed relief over being discharged in the Delhi excise policy case and said the judiciary has cut through the "web of lies" in the case.

Kavitha, daughter of BRS president and former Telangana Chief Minister K Chandrasekhar Rao, said she has always maintained that the case was politically motivated, foisted on "opposition parties" as part of a political vendetta.

"Satyamev Jayate (truth alone triumphs). This (case) was a web of lies. Judiciary has cut right through it," she told reporters here. Kavitha hit out at her brother and BRS Working President K T Rama Rao for his comments that BRS was the political casualty of the "narrative" of the "liquor scam".

She said BRS lost the 2023 assembly polls due to unfulfilled promises, including housing for the poor, jobs and "arrogance" in power. She also said she is going to launch her party in two months.

Kavitha said her family members, including her husband, in-laws, and parents, and Telangana Jagruthi workers stood by her during her difficult times, and thanked them for their support. Her father, Chandrasekhar Rao, himself time and again, said that the case was a vendetta against him and BRS which was reflected on her, she said.

"Who will account for the time that I lost with my kids?, she told reporters.

MENTAL HEALTH CONCERNS

Excessive screen time impacts teenagers' sleep, warn experts

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

EXCESSIVE screen use among teenagers is becoming a growing concern. Experts are warning that long hours spent on phones, gaming, and social media are affecting young people's sleep, behaviour, and mental well-being. The issues like compulsive gaming, endless scrolling and online gambling were discussed by specialists at the CAMVON National Conference on Addictive Medicine on Friday.

Psychologists said that teenagers are vulnerable as their brains are still developing. The part of the brain that seeks rewards and social approval matures earlier than the part responsible for judgment and self-control. This makes teens more likely to chase likes, notifications, and gaming rewards without realising when to stop. It can cause problems like poor sleep, irritability, lack of concentration, anxiety, low mood, and behavioural issues. Many teenagers turn to screens to cope with boredom, loneliness, academic stress, or just from the fear of missing out.

Social media platforms and games are designed to keep users hooked through endless scrolling, personalised content, and unpredictable rewards. Experts said that lack of clear screen-time rules at home, frequent family conflicts, or parents themselves being glued to screens can encourage usage among children. However, many adolescents grow out of unhealthy patterns as they develop better self-control.

Experts advised parents to encourage balanced routines, ensure proper sleep, promote offline activities, and maintain open conversations about digital habits.

'CONFIDENT 1 OR 2 FROM J&K WILL PLAY FOR INDIA'

HOURS before landing in the city, J&K CM Omar Abdullah said on X, "On our way to Hubballi to cheer for the J&K cricket team as they play the final of the Ranji Trophy. They've already made lakhs of people proud of their achievements by reaching the final. I'm looking forward to spending the day tomorrow in the stands cheering them on."

He said, "It was projected that it would be difficult for us to win in the final. With the team entering the final, people now realise that there are talented cricketers in Jammu and Kashmir as well. After this, I am confident that one or two of our players will go on to represent India."

In the final being played at the Raj Nagar stadium, J&K tightened their grip on Karnataka, putting the hosts under pressure. J&K piled up 584 in the first innings and scored 186/4 in the second innings till the end of play. At the end of Day 4, J&K batters Kamran Iqbal (unbeaten 96) and Sahil Lotra (unbeaten 16) were at the crease. The team has taken a commanding lead of 477 runs.

SHARP GDP REVISIONS SHOW NEED TO FOCUS ON BETTER DATASETS

THE statistical overhaul India is undergoing will convey more over time than it's doing in the moment. But for now, what appears certain is that growth is strong and broad-based, with consumption and investment on the expenditure side and manufacturing and services on the supply side turning in decent performances. For 2025-26, real GDP growth is pegged at 7.8 percent, up from 7.4 percent estimated in the old series. Sequentially, third-quarter growth printed lower at 7.8 percent as against 8.2 percent seen in the second quarter; but it's higher than the 7.4 percent registered during the same period in the previous year. Soon after the new dataset's release, Chief Economic Advisor V Anantha Nageswaran revised his 2026-27 real growth estimate upwards to 7-7.4 percent. Pegging nominal growth at 10-11 percent, the CEA concluded that the economy would comfortably cross the $4-trillion mark by next March.

The biggest setback is in the nominal GDP. For 2025-26, it is now estimated at ₹345 lakh crore in absolute terms, down from about ₹357 lakh crore under the old series. It means, in dollar terms, the size of the Indian economy stands at $3.8 trillion, reduced from $3.9 trillion, making the wait to emerge as the fourth largest economy a bit longer. That said, what's undeniable is that India has seen consecutive years of 7 percent growth with key components like manufacturing making a strong comeback. Agriculture and mining, however, need to punch higher than the 2025-26 projections, while services growth remains range-bound. Private investments are finally coming around and consumption seems steady with strong rural demand.

Among the various revisions, what stood out was the significant downward revision in 2023-24 numbers. Real GDP growth rates were revised down from 9.2 percent in the old series to 7.2 percent. All three components—agriculture, industry and services—saw sharp downward revisions. It's true that this was due to methodological improvements. But it raises the pertinent question if policy interventions such as personal income tax cuts and GST rate rationalisation came a beat behind the actual music. Sound public policy rests on timely, credible and granular data. It's now evident that we have been reading things wrong. For evidence-based decisions amid rapid changes, we need a harmony of datasets across ministries and states, besides continuous efforts at improving their quality and transparency.

DIET NO MORAL TEST, DON'T POLICE PLATES

BIHAR'S Deputy Chief Minister Vijay Kumar Sinha sparked a row when, while banning the open sale of meat near religious places and schools, he said such visibility hurt the "purity of our sentiments" and could foster "violent tendencies" among children. He insisted the government was not against anyone's right to eat what they chose; yet the order casts ordinary dietary practice as a moral and social threat.

The political backdrop made the statement more charged. In Bihar, food habits of leaders such as Lalu Prasad, Tejashwi Yadav and Rahul Gandhi have in recent times been amplified into campaign controversies. The BJP has accused them of eating meat during 'auspicious' days to allege disrespect to Hindu sentiments. With Holi coming up and elections due in several states including West Bengal next door, the timing of Sinha's remarks has led the opposition to question his intentions.

If this is about sending a majoritarian cultural signal, it is on a weak ground because, within Hinduism, Shakta traditions and numerous sub-groups have included meat in their diets for long. Data also exposes the rhetoric. The National Family Health Survey 2019-21 showed that just 16.6 percent of Indian men and 29.4 percent of women aged 15-49 had never consumed meat. Yet, 'non-vegetarian' is a social label used with an arguably pejorative slant in many contexts.

The episode fits a wider pattern. Across India, food culture has been increasingly politicised—from school mid-day meals to food served in hostels or on trains. What's lost in this noise is the individual's right to choose. Vegetarianism works well for those who practise it. But a shift from animal-based food can worsen poverty and malnutrition among communities used to it as an affordable source of protein. When these foods are left out of government schemes, it sends the message that their habits are inferior or avoidable.

The Constitution protects personal freedom, including the right to choose what one eats. Governments should ensure hygiene and follow the law without turning food into a tool of moral policing. Social harmony cannot grow by limiting diversity—but only by accepting others' choices. A confident society does not feel threatened by its constituents' food choices.

QUICK TAKE

A GLOBAL FORCE FOR GOOD

THE Trump administration has a new enemy: Cuban doctors. Since 1963, the communist nation has sent out over 400,000 healthcare professionals to serve in more than 160 countries. Today, it brings in more than $8 billion for the island nation's beleaguered economy. Guatemala gave in to American pressure last week and closed its three-decade-old programme hosting Cuban doctors, whereas Italy's Calabria province resisted it, as did several Caribbean nations last year. The need for having an international medical force is felt more acutely today than ever before. India, which is still remembered in China for sending Dwarkanath Kotnis and four other doctors to treat soldiers in 1938, should take the lead in such a global initiative. It's a cause that should not face ideological frontiers.

AS overweight and obesity levels rise in populations the world over, they pose much more than cosmetic and mobility challenges to people. Body fat, especially visceral fat which is stored within the abdomen, is a factory that churns out an army of pro- and anti-inflammatory chemicals.

As visceral fat deposits rise, they release a flood of tissue-damaging pro-inflammatory chemicals, while reducing the production of anti-inflammatory chemicals like adiponectin. This chronic assault on body tissues increases the risk of cardiovascular diseases, diabetes, cancer and dementia.

Development and clinical deployment of several anti-obesity drugs has recently provided powerful interventions to reduce body weight and confer protection against the cardio-metabolic hazards associated with obesity. After years of limited success in providing effective medical treatments for obesity (beyond invasive surgical treatments), these drugs demonstrated dramatic results. A booming global market has emerged over the past few years, with clamour for these 'miracle drugs' going beyond clinical use to cosmetic transformation.

This was made possible by pathbreaking advances in biomedical research which helped to identify many hormones that are produced naturally by the body to regulate appetite, gastric motility and blood glucose levels, with brain signalling acting as a powerful communication tool to coordinate physiologic functions across a complex web of neuro-endocrine and metabolic pathways.

Among these, recently-discovered glucagon-like peptide (GLP-1) and glucose-dependent insulinotropic polypeptide (GIP) have emerged as key players besides well recognised hormones like insulin and glucagon. GLP-1 is a natural hormone produced mainly by the L-cells of the ileum (lower part of the small intestine). GIP, also known as gastric inhibitory polypeptide, is produced by the K-cells of the jejunum (upper part of the small intestine).

This surge in knowledge about the intricately designed and harmoniously coordinated human physiology enabled the development of drugs that may act as agonists (binding to a specific cell, producing a biological response mimicking a naturally occurring substance) of these hormones, to serve diverse clinical needs. At the forefront of this are the GLP-1 and GIP agonists (like semaglutide, liraglutide and tirzepatide). Apart from influencing insulin release and glucose homeostasis, these agents also have favourable effects on lipid metabolism and inflammation. GIP has also been recently shown to have a major influence on bone remodelling.

Euphoria about these miracle drugs has started dissipating in the last two years. While clinical trials are very good for demonstrating efficacy in sampled populations studied for a limited time period, adverse drug effects emerge more clearly over a longer time period when a large number of persons have started using the drug.

This has happened with the anti-obesity drugs. Initial reports reported gastrointestinal side effects (ranging from abdominal bloating due to delayed gastric emptying to disrupted intestinal muscle movement). While some initial reports of increased suicidal ideation have not been corroborated, anxiety and depression have been reported.

More serious adverse effects have emerged with increased global use. Sarcopenia, or loss of skeletal muscle, is a serious problem which can lead to falls. Apart from a direct action of the drugs on skeletal muscle, decreased appetite leads to low protein intake affecting muscle mass. Decrease in physical activity may also contribute. High-protein diets and protein supplements have been advocated to prevent or treat sarcopenia among users of GLP-1 agonists.

Over 22 percent of individuals using GLP-1 receptor agonists develop at least one nutrient deficiency within 12 months, driven by severe appetite suppression and delayed gastric emptying. Common deficiencies include vitamins D, B12, folate, thiamine, iron and calcium.

More disconcerting information has emerged from studies of persons who have discontinued the medication after using it for a prescribed period and losing weight. Studies showed that over 40-50 percent of lost weight was regained within 28-52 weeks of stopping. Some returned to their starting weight within 1.5 to 2 years. If that was disappointing, more disconcerting was the fact that benefits related to blood pressure, diabetes and blood lipid control dissipated fast after the drugs were stopped.

Researchers at Oxford University reviewed 37 studies with over 9,000 patients to compare the blockbuster weight-loss jabs with conventional dieting or other pills. The study found that individuals stopping GLP-1 weight-loss drugs regain weight about four times faster than those stopping traditional diet and exercise programmes. Patients typically regained most lost weight within two years, averaging 0.4-0.8 kg per month, with positive health indicators fading away in a year.

Reasons for this reversal could be many. When these drugs are given in larger than naturally produced hormones, without harmonising with the dietary fluctuations that occur over the usual course of a day, production of the natural hormone may be suppressed and may not readjust later. Exuberance over achieved weight loss may lead to dietary indiscretion in the belief that the 'meds will take care of it'. Loss of skeletal muscle may lead to physical inactivity.

For young- and middle-aged persons who wish to use GLP-1 agonists to 'look good', there is a caution they must heed. While erectile dysfunction may improve alongside vascular function in elderly persons with diabetes, there is a 22 percent higher probability of developing that unwanted side effect among other males too. Among women users, the risk of inability to experience an orgasm is doubled. Ophthalmic complications of a serious nature have also been reported in a small proportion of users.

While dramatic weight loss and impressive metabolic gains have been demonstrated with these drugs, undesirable side effects and rebounds after discontinuation raise questions on their introduction into routine clinical practice. Amid those dilemmas, we must remember that GLP-1 agonists and GIP are natural hormones which nature has perfected for our bodies to produce and use.

Fruits like apples and guavas, nuts and seeds have been shown to increase their production and diets. Ultra-processed foods derange that capacity with adverse health effects. Perhaps it is best to promote healthy, wholesome traditional diets for the population, while reserving these drugs for clinical use in persons with extreme obesity or severe cardio-metabolic impairments of health.

BOOKENDED BY MELAS AND FESTS

SPEAKEASY

WILLIAM Dalrymple recently sputtered like a lit fuse on X at an "irritating and ignorant article" in The Guardian that had asked why India has over 100 literary festivals but low book sales and no culture of reading. Is it because entertainments like Bollywood are included in festivals? Why did Dalrymple feel irritated when the argument about poor sales and low readership has been around for decades?

The article by Amrit Dhillon only added the contrast between the smallness of the publishing industry in India and the boom in literature festivals, led by the Jaipur Literature Festival that Dalrymple co-founded. She offered supporting quotes from authors, booksellers and publishers. All of them affirm that the book trade moves slowly, but Indians like a nice jamboree. This rather harmless allegation burst like an inflamed boil.

Blame the name. The literature (or literary) festival is a British creature of post-war provenance—the oldest is at Cheltenham, an annual feature from 1949, and the best-known is at Hay-on-Wye, established in 1988, which exported the concept and the name overseas. In India, JLF adopted the format in 2006, grew exponentially and encouraged entrepreneurs with literary leanings—and organisations which understand that literariness works like angel dust—to get in on the game. Writing became performative.

In the beginning, there were book fairs, not literary festivals. In mediaeval Europe, trade fairs at commercial centres like Leipzig attracted booksellers and printers, who then launched book fairs. The Frankfurt fair, the biggest business-to-business book expo, is purely a trade fair for the sale of international rights. It lets in retail buyers only as an afterthought. Interaction of readers with writers and publishers, a hallmark of literary festivals, is limited to the weekend.

In India, book fairs preceded literary festivals. The New Delhi World Book Fair opened in 1972 in conjunction with the Asia 72 trade show. Both were held at the Pragati Maidan exhibition complex, a classic design by architect Raj Rewal that the present government has demolished in a random act of vandalism to make room for Bharat Mandapam.

India's biggest book event is the International Kolkata Book Fair, started in 1976, which draws over 20 lakh visitors. It's a very serious fair—rare titles like Revelations of Divine Love by the 13th-century anchoress Julian of Norwich can be found there (I know, I bought a copy). The fair also features literary entertainments like readings and discussions by prominent writers and publishers, and Kolkata's significant set circulate freely. So do phalanxes of pamphleteers selling crank treatises proposing a geocentric universe or divination by observing crows (Kak Charitra). It's a mixed bag, like a country mela, which is where it gets its Bengali name from—Boi Mela.

AFP

Before jamborees like the Jaipur Literature Festival were established, there were large book fairs like the one in Kolkata offering eclectic fares. When we complain about the country's low readership and relatively small publishing industry, we are mostly talking about English language publishing

A mela suggests not a trade fair for bookish audiences and writerly stars, but rural harvest festivals. There's the Poush Mela in nearby Santiniketan, for instance, where highbrow and lowbrow mingle in a strangely uplifting cloud of food, music, poetry, handicrafts, activism and pot. In India, the traditions of the deadly-serious book fair and the entertaining festival have merged. People who don't like this say it devalues books. The rest say that it brings more people into the fold of readers. These are opinions, not facts.

The older allegations which started this thread—books don't sell in India and there's hardly a culture of reading—must be inconclusive because, invariably, the discussion is about publishing in English, which is a fraction of the Indian publishing landscape. The whole vista is very varied, from risk-averse publishers who print textbooks to offset speculative losses in literary publishing, specialists like Amitav Ghosh's publisher Ravi Dayal and Vikram Seth's publisher P Lal, and idealists running small presses, usually into the ground.

Besides, in Indian publishing, for every fact there's an alternative. The industry formalised only recently and it is still normal for writers to submit a manuscript without a contract and to hand over rights during a casual phone call, with no written record. Frames of reference also matter. In response to the article in The Guardian, which stated that Indian print runs are low and that 10,000 copies make a bestseller (a fact in English publishing), HarperCollins India CEO Anantha Padmanabhan pointed out that the Malayalam novel Ram C/O Anandhi by Akhil P Dharmarajan and Too Good to be True by Prajakta Koli sold 3 lakh and 2 lakh copies in a year (an alternative fact). The context: both are young social media phenomenons and Koli works in OTT cinema. Of course they'd have the numbers. Amish pioneered that strategy when he embraced digital media promotion.

Beyond English, on which the spotlight is fixed, Indian publishing is a vast landscape. If you consider sellers of used books—who often participate in trade fairs—you'll find the numbers climbing fast. And if you look into the darker corners of this world where the pirates are silently at work, you'll find hoards that go uncounted. That's why, when no one's looking, many writers ask the bootleggers at traffic lights how their novels are doing. The pirate estimate can be more revealing than formal sales figures. A market with such varied cultures of reading, and so many languages, styles and niches, can't be treated as a single, orderly entity bound by universal rules.

Structural reform

Ref: Joseph panel report (Feb 27). The panel's observations have merit in a narrow sense. Both the Congress and the BJP have, when in power, used governors to destabilise opposition-ruled states. The tool changed hands, but the practice did not. That is precisely why structural reform matters.

Home Affairs Dialogue: India raises security of diplomats, K-links in UK

MUKESH RANJAN @ New Delhi

INDIA and the United Kingdom, during the 6th edition of Home Affairs Dialogue on Friday highlighted pro-Khalistani extremism and the activities of anti-India groups operating in Britain as key areas for closer co-operation and coordination.

During talks, India raised concerns over recent security breaches affecting Indian dignitaries and diplomatic premises in the UK, underlining the need for stronger measures and enhanced cooperation. Both sides acknowledged the importance of safeguarding diplomatic missions and maintaining public order, the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) said in a statement.

As Union Home Secretary Govind Mohan has been traveling to Bihar along with Union Home Minister Amit Shah, the Indian delegation at the meet was led by Secretary (Border Management) Rajendra Kumar, while the team from UK's Home Office was led by Second Permanent Secretary Simon Ridley, it said.

The dialogue provided a platform for reviewing ongoing collaboration and identifying new avenues for joint action on security-related challenges, the MHA noted in the statement.

"The two nations identified several other priority areas for proactive engagement. These included tackling drug trafficking networks, addressing migration-related issues, strengthening criminal justice partnerships, deepening law enforcement cooperation, and enhancing collaboration in cyber security," the MHA statement read, while adding that both sides agreed that emerging threats in the digital domain require sustained information-sharing.

SC: Submit report on farmers' agitation

The Supreme Court on Friday asked the high-powered committee, constituted earlier to amicably resolve the grievances of the farmers who held an agitation at the Shambhu border between Punjab and Haryana in 2024, to submit its report-cum-recommendations. The bench said that the report-cum-recommendations should not be divulged in public domain until further orders of the court.

Doctor gets bail in Pune Porsche crash case

The Supreme Court on Friday granted bail to a doctor arrested for allegedly tampering with the blood samples of a 17-year-old boy, accused of crashing a Porsche car into a motorcycle in Pune and killing two persons. The incident dates back to May 19, 2024, when the car allegedly driven by an allegedly drunk 17-year-old fatally knocked down two IT professionals in Pune. A bench of Justices B V Nagarathna and Ujjal Bhuyan granted the relief.

SC agrees to hear plea against SHANTI Act

The Supreme Court on Friday agreed to hear a plea challenging several provisions of the SHANTI Act, 2025, saying the main dispute raised is between an actual, visible and tangible national interest versus an unfortunate hypothetical loss. A bench of Chief Justice Surya Kant and Justice Joymalya Bagchi termed the matter as "extremely sensitive issue" requiring detailed hearing.

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Friday said Parliament retains the "absolute prerogative" to enact a law and it is not bound by the undertaking which may have been given by the Centre.

The observations came from a bench of Chief Justice Surya Kant and Justice Joymalya Bagchi which was hearing a batch of petitions challenging the constitutional validity of Section 152 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS). Section 152 deals with the acts endangering sovereignty, unity and integrity of India.

A lawyer appearing for the petitioners said Section 152 reintroduces Section 124A (sedition) of the erstwhile Indian Penal Code. In May 2022, a three-judge bench of the apex court had put on hold the colonial-era penal law on sedition till an appropriate government forum re-examines it and directed the Centre and states to not register any fresh FIR invoking the offence.

The lawyer said that in 2022, the Centre had given an undertaking before the top court that they would review the sedition law. The counsel said the government cannot reintroduce the provision in BNS after giving an undertaking before the court.

"An undertaking by the executive does not curtail Parliament's legislative powers. The Union of India may have given an undertaking before the court but Parliament is not bound by it," the bench said, adding, "Parliament has the absolute prerogative to enact a law."

During the hearing, the petitioners also questioned Section 173 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), saying it violates the apex court's Lalita Kumari judgement which mandates registration of an FIR if the information discloses commission of a cognisable offence.

The bench, however, said the Lalita Kumari judgment has been abused, leading to proliferation of frivolous FIRS. "Sometimes judgments are given sitting on ivory towers. Have you seen what kind of litigation it has generated? Once cognisable offence is disclosed, FIR has to be registered. How much that judgment has been abused in this country?" the bench asked.

The bench also said many times courts are abused.

'We know our officers': SC says no to objection on EC training module in Bengal

Judicial officers understand our orders. It is a completely alien responsibility which we gave to them

Supreme Court

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY @ New Delhi

The Supreme Court on Friday refused to entertain the West Bengal government's objections over the training module issued by the Election Commission (EC) for judicial officers deployed to verify voter claims as part of the special intensive revision (SIR) of electoral rolls in the state.

A bench of Chief Justice Surya Kant and Justice Joymalya Bagchi said judicial officers would not be "influenced by anything" and the apex court orders in the matter were clear.

Senior advocate Kapil Sibal, appearing for West Bengal, said, "Something strange has happened. While your lordships passed the order that all modalities will be settled by the chief justice (of Calcutta HC) and the committee, what they have done is, behind the back, they have issued directions to judicial officers and issued a training module saying this is what they should accept and this is what they should not accept," Sibal said. He argued that the ECI issued a "clandestine" training module to judicial officers.

The Chief Justice said judicial officers would take a call. "We can't hear like this. There has to be an end to it," he said.

STATE'S CONCERN REJECTED

The SC rejected the WB govt's concerns and affirmed that the judicial officers would be independent and follow the court's guidelines.

A glimpse of Op Sindoor at Indo-Pak border

JAVARIA RANA @ Pokhran

THE Indian Air Force on Friday recreated key elements of Operation Sindoor at Pokhran during Vayu Shakti on Friday, laying out how it carried out strikes and countered aerial threats during last year's hostilities with Pakistan.

President Droupadi Murmu, as the Supreme Commander of the Armed Forces flew a sortie in the indigenous Prachand before witnessing the FPD (Force Protection Detachment). The sortie was undertaken as a two-aircraft LCH formation, with Chief of the Air staff Air Chief Marshal AP Singh flying the second helicopter.

With a deafening supersonic boom, a Rafale under the call sign "Brahmastra" opened the FPD, signalling its key role in the IAF's future force structure after the government's nod earlier this month for 114 additional aircraft.

The sequence began with ISR (intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance) inputs from RPAS (remotely piloted aircraft system), which identified and tracked targets in real time, with simulated terror camps and radar installations adding operational realism.

This was followed by simulated suppression and destruction of enemy air defences, overseen by the IAF's Integrated Air Command and Control System (IACCS) and executed using loitering munitions.

The integrated air defence grid was demonstrated through coordinated firings by Akash surface-to-air missiles, the Spyder system and upgraded L-70 guns, mirroring the layered approach adopted during the conflict. The IAF had played a central role on May 7, striking two of the nine designated targets and then countering Pakistan's aerial incursions using a mix of legacy Soviet-origin systems and modern indigenous and imported platforms, including Akash, MR-SAM, Pechora and Osa-AK. During the hostilities, the S-400 system carried out the longest-range ground-to-air kill in military history, taking down a SAAB 2000 Erieye. The force inflicted damage on at least 11 Pakistani air bases, after which Islamabad desperately reached out for a ceasefire despite initially declining a call from Indian DGMO Lt Gen Rajiv Ghai on May 7.

The indigenous Tejas MK-1 LCA was missing from the FPD after the entire fleet was grounded following a runway incident earlier this month. Rafale, Su-30MKI, Jaguar, Hawk and Mirage 2000 formed the fighter package, with Rafale and Su-30MKI demonstrating air-to-air engagements.

A C-295 transport aircraft carried out a night assault landing, while a C-130J Super Hercules landed on a short strip, inserted Garud commandos into a simulated combat zone and took off within minutes, as attack helicopters secured the area.

With a deafening supersonic boom, a Rafale under the call sign "Brahmastra" opened the FPD, signalling its key role in the IAF's future force structure after the government's nod earlier this month for 114 additional aircraft. Army elements were also part of the display.

NCERT orders immediate recall of Class 8 textbook after SC verdict

S LALITHA @ New Delhi

A day after the Supreme Court imposed a blanket ban on the new Class 8 social science book, the National Council for Educational Research and Technology (NCERT) on Friday asked individuals and organisations that have copies of it to return it to its head office in Delhi. The education body said that it sold only 38 copies of the book on Monday, the only day it was sold from its Delhi office.

Its advisory said, "The NCERT requests any individual or organisation in possession of the NCERT textbook 'Exploring Society: India and Beyond', Social Science Grade 8 Part 2, or any material related to it, to return it to the Head, Department of Education in Social Sciences or the Publication Division, NCERT, Sri Aurobindo Marg, New Delhi, at the earliest."

The advisory further said, "We also request that any content related to the chapter 'Role of Judiciary in our Society', if posted on any of the social media or digital platforms, be deleted at the earliest."

A senior official told this newspaper that 2.5 lakh copies of the book had been printed. "Only 38 of them were sold at our head office on the day of release on Monday. We stopped the sale the following day. The buyers have been tracked down and only 10 copies are yet to be taken back by the Publications Division of the NCERT," he said, adding that following the ban, the buyers must return their copies, as it is illegal to possess it now.

The education body quoted the Thursday order of the court in its advisory: "A complete blanket ban is hereby imposed on any further publication reprinting or digital dissemination of the book titled 'Exploring Society, India and Beyond'. ... Any attempt to circumvent this order through electronic media or alternative titles, containing the same contents, shall be treated as a direct interference, willful breach and defiance of the directions issued herein above."

The controversy part of the chapter spoke of alleged corruption in the judiciary and provided supporting data from a five-year period since 2017. The NCERT later apologised for what it called an inadvertent mistake, while the Ministry of Education assured a probe and punishment for the guilty.

Canadian PM arrives in Mumbai for 4-day India visit to reset bilateral ties

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

CANADIAN Prime Minister Mark Carney arrived in Mumbai on Friday, commencing a four-day visit to India that is seen as a pivotal effort to reset bilateral ties and expand economic engagement between the two countries.

He will pay homage to the victims of 26/11 Mumbai terrorist attack. His visit begins with meetings scheduled with leading business figures in Mumbai, India's financial capital, before he travels to New Delhi on March 1.

Carney will hold talks with PM Narendra Modi on March 2. External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar will call on the Canadian PM who will also address the India–Canada CEO Forum in the national capital prior to returning to Canada.

"The visit marks a significant step in further strengthening India–Canada ties," a spokesperson for the Ministry of External Affairs said, underscoring that the partnership is rooted in shared democratic values, and expanding cooperation across sectors.

The trip comes at a sensitive juncture for Ottawa. With relations between Canada and the United States under strain, Carney has pledged to diversify trade partnerships and identify new markets for Canadian exports. India, with a population of 1.4 billion and one of the world's fastest-growing major economies, is seen as a potentially crucial destination for Canada's petroleum, natural gas and other resources.

Bilateral ties have been strained in recent years following allegations by former PM Justin Trudeau that the Indian government was linked to the killing of a Canadian citizen associated with Sikh separatist activism. India has strongly denied the accusations.

No visit to Punjab

Carney is not scheduled to visit Punjab, a region that has historically been central to Indian migration to Canada. Observers say the focus this time is squarely on recalibrating diplomatic channels and rebuilding economic confidence.

PM addressed 19 foreign parliaments from '14

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi addressed 19 foreign parliaments between 2014 and 2026, which is a record for an executive head of India. Hailing the milestone, the BJP claimed on Friday that Modi addressed more foreign parliaments than any previous Indian prime minister, and notably more than all Congress prime ministers combined.

"When PM Modi speaks, the world listens. He had addressed 19 foreign parliaments–right from addressing the joint session of the US Congress to the Knesset of Israel," the BJP posted on 'X'. It called the achievement "a reflection of India's growing global stature, diplomatic credibility, leadership and moral authority".

According to available information, former Prime Minister Manmohan Singh addressed seven foreign parliaments, Indira Gandhi addressed four and Jawaharlal Nehru addressed three. Former Prime Ministers Rajiv Gandhi and Atal Bihari Vajpayee addressed two foreign parliaments each.

In 2014, shortly after assuming office, Modi addressed the parliaments of Australia, Fiji, Nepal and Bhutan. The following year, he addressed the National Assembly of Mauritius in March and Sri Lanka's Parliament. In the same year, he delivered a widely noted address in the Parliament of Mongolia and later spoke at the UK Parliament in November.

In December 2015, Modi addressed the Parliament of Afghanistan. In June 2016 came the mother of all addresses when he spoke at the joint session of the US Congress. In 2018, he addressed the Parliament of Uganda, and in 2019, the Parliament of the Maldives. In 2023, Modi once again addressed a joint session of the US Congress.

In the second address to the US Congress, he had said, "Democracy is the idea that welcomes debate and discourse. Democracy is the culture that gives wings to thought and expression. India is blessed to have such values from times immemorial. In the evolution of the democratic spirit, India is the Mother of Democracy."

According to the BJP, in 2024, he addressed the Parliament of Guyana. In July 2025, he addressed the Parliament of Ghana, followed in the same month by addresses to the Parliament of Trinidad and Tobago and the Parliament of Namibia. Later that year, he also addressed the Parliament of Ethiopia. Most recently, he addressed the Knesset in Israel and was honoured with the Israeli Parliament's highest award. Addressing the Knesset, PM Modi raised the October 7, 2023, Hamas attack and condoled the death of Israeli citizens.

As of February 2026, Modi has undertaken 99 international visits to 79 countries.

PM Modi has become the first Prime Minister of India to have addressed 19 foreign parliaments. Shortly after assuming office in 2014, PM addressed the parliaments of four countries. His latest address was at the Knesset in Israel.

Ruling party to launch outreach programme in the state from today

BJP-AGP alliance deal for Assam poll likely by Mar 10

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

WITH Assembly elections in Assam expected in April, the BJP is inching closer to finalising its alliance with regional parties Asom Gana Parishad (AGP) and Bodoland People's Front (BPF).

Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma on Friday said the BJP is keen on 100% seat-sharing with the AGP. "But if there disputes in some seats, then they will see a friendly contest. Wherever possible, we will have a seat-sharing deal. Where it is not possible, we will have a friendly contest," Sarma said, adding that the BJP-AGP alliance is likely to be finalised by March 10. He said the BJP's alliance with the BPF was more or less finalised on Thursday.

The BPF, which rules the autonomous Bodoland Territorial Council (BTC), is a powerhouse in the Bodoland Territorial Region (BTR) which has 15 Assembly seats.

Sarma did not speak about the United People's Party Liberal (UPPL). The BJP had ruled the BTC in alliance with the UPPL from 2020-2025 until both were ousted from power. The BPF had swept the BTC polls, bagging 28 of the 40 seats.

After the poll debacle, the BJP renewed its alliance with the BPF. A BPF legislator was also inducted into the ministry. The BPF and the UPPL are bitter foes, and it is to be seen if the BJP forges an alliance with the Pramod Boro-led UPPL.

Meanwhile, the BJP will launch a "Jan Ashirwad Yatra" from Saturday. The Chief Minister said the BJP's target would be to cover 40 to 50 Assembly constituencies under the yatra, which will begin from Gupteshwar temple under Dhekiajuli constituency.

"Through this yatra, developmental and welfare initiatives of Central and state governments will be taken to the people, while seeking their blessings for elections," the BJP said in a statement.

Last month, the Congress had taken out an outreach campaign, "Raijor Podulit Raijor Congress" (People's Congress at People's Doorsteps).

'Tie-up with Bodoland People's Front finalised'

CM Himanta Biswa Sarma said the BJP's alliance with the Bodoland People's Front (BPF) was more or less finalised on Thursday. The BPF, which rules the autonomous Bodoland Territorial Council, is a powerhouse in the Bodoland Territorial Region which has 15 Assembly seats. Sarma did not speak about the United People's Party Liberal.

Bihar BJP MLAs seek strict law to stop conversion

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

THE demand for a stricter anti-conversion law was raised on the concluding day of Bihar legislative assembly on Friday. The issue was raised by several members of the NDA during the calling attention motion.

Eighteen MLAs including Maithili Thakur, Mithilesh Tiwari, Janak Singh, Sanjay Kumar Singh, and Baidyanath Prasad called for a law similar to that in other states like Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Uttarakhand and Gujarat.

Speaker Prem Kumar assured the House that government would review anti-conversion laws of states that ban forced religious conversion and inter-faith marriage and "if required, would implement it in Bihar as well". He said that government is concerned over the issue raised by members in the House. "Adequate steps will be taken to deal with the situation," he said.

The legislators contended that several states have provisions for severe punishment, including imprisonment upto 20 years in such cases.

BJP MLA from Buxar Mithilesh Tiwari said that in Buxar district, over 1,000 Dalit families had converted. Tiwari said that the state should adopt a law similar to Uttar Pradesh.

Shah meets Bihar officials on border, special probe committee announced

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

HOURS after Union Home Minister Amit Shah held a high-level meeting on issues related to Indo-Nepal border with senior state administrative officers in Purnea, Bihar deputy chief minister Vijay Kumar Sinha announced setting up a special probe committee to look into allegations of encroachment of land by 'outsiders' in Kishanganj district.

Sinha, who is also the revenue and land reforms department minister, said that a special committee would be formed to investigate reports of encroachment of land by 'outsiders' in Kishanganj district, a part of Seemanchal region. Sinha made the announcement on the concluding day of Budget session of Bihar legislative Assembly on Friday.

JD(U) MLA from Thakurganj Neeraj Agrawal raised the issue of illegal infiltration and encroachment of land belong to local residents by 'outsiders'. He said that land allotted to the landless from Dalits, ST and Muslims under government's 'Bhoodan' scheme in Dighalbank block of Kishanganj district had been encroached upon by 'outsiders.'

The MLA claimed that some people from West Bengal's Malda and Murshidabad districts have 'purchased' land of the poor. Kishanganj's Thakurganj area is strategically sensitive from security point of view. He claimed that 90 per cent of such land has been encroached upon. Ownership of 'Boodan' land can not be transferred, according to rule, he added.

Besides Nepal, Seemanchal shares borders with West Bengal and is seen as a gateway to the strategically important Silliguri Corridor, often referred to as the 'Chicken Neck'.

New strategy formulated

Earlier in the day, Shah chaired a meeting on issues related to the India-Nepal border with senior administrative and police officers in Bihar's Purnea as a new strategy was made to control suspicious activities, infiltration, and smuggling in the bordering areas.

Buzz over new state out of Bengal, Bihar

Union Home Minister Amit Shah's three-day visit to Bihar has triggered a new controversy. His visit is generally linked with assembly election to be held in West Bengal. Though his visit is mainly focussed on state's border security arrangements, some political observers link it to possibility of creating a new state by carving out parts of Bengal and Bihar. RJD MLA Ranvijay Sahu has claimed that parts of Bihar's Seemanchal region and Bengal will be carved out for creating a new state. Senior BJP leader and former union minister Syed Shahnawaz Hussain, however, quashed all these speculations.

RJD MLC's startling 'liquor' claim in Council

RJD MLC Sunil Kumar Singh had claimed that he could arrange delivery of liquor directly inside state legislative council premises on the last day of the Budget session, but he failed to keep his word. Singh had also put a condition that the courier bringing alcohol bottle to legislative council should not be arrested, but government did not oblige him. Singh alleged that the decade-old prohibition law in Bihar has completely failed. Bihar deputy CM Vijay Kumar Sinha asserted that government is fully committed to enforcing liquor ban and that any, regardless of their status, found violating it would be punished.

Minister promises sports village in Bhagalpur

Sports lovers have reasons to cheer up. Bihar sports minister Shreyasi Singh has said that 'Khel Gaon' will be constructed in Goradih in Bihar. The 'Khel Gaon' will prove to be a historic gift for the athletes of the Anga region – Banka, Bhagalpur, Jamui, and Munger districts. The State Council of Ministers recently met and formally approved the transfer of approximately 15.01 acres of government land to the Sports Department free of cost. With this decision, process of constructing state's first sports village has begun, and instructions have been issued to department concerned to complete the necessary formalities.

Meghalaya alert after death of 2 Agniveer trainees

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

AFTER two Agniveer trainees died of suspected meningococcal bacterial infection in Shillong, the Meghalaya government has issued a health advisory, urging people to wear a mask and avoid crowded areas. The two were among 30 trainees at the Assam Regimental Centre in Shillong. The others have been quarantined and kept under observation.

The government in an advisory said the State Surveillance Unit (SSU) had been notified of suspected cases of meningococcal infection. The District Surveillance Unit (DSU), East Khasi Hills, in coordination with the SSU, has initiated an active epidemiological investigation. Case investigation, contact tracing, laboratory review, and surveillance strengthening measures are underway.

"The SSU reassures the public that the situation is being closely monitored and under control. No new suspected cases have been detected in any other area. All necessary measures, including identification and monitoring of close contacts and implementation of appropriate preventive interventions, are being carried out as per standard outbreak response," the advisory read.

Didi picks former DGP, SC lawyer among four nominees for Rajya Sabha

SUBHENDU MAITI @ Kolkata

THE ruling Trinamool Congress in West Bengal announced its nominees for the forthcoming Rajya Sabha elections on Friday night. The former director general of police (DGP) Rajeev Kumar and three others including Ballygunj MLA Babul Supriya, Supreme Court lawyer Menaka Guruswamy, and actress Koel Mallick were nominated.

TMC made the announcement on X saying, "We are pleased to announce the candidature of Babul Supriyo, Rajeev Kumar, Menaka Guruswamy and Koel Mallick for the upcoming Rajya Sabha elections. We extend our heartfelt congratulations and best wishes to them..." The nominations have drawn attention given the mix of legal, administrative, political and cultural figures named by the party.

Babul Supriyo was elected to the Lok Sabha from Asansol on a BJP ticket in 2014 and 2019. He resigned as an MP and defected to Trinamool in 2021, and was elected to the Bengal Vidhan Sabha from Ballygunj in 2022. He was also given a berth in the Mamata Banerjee cabinet. According to sources in the Trinamool Congress, Babul was asked to contest from Asansol North assembly constituency but he was not willing.

"Didi and Abhishek picked me. I have tried my best for the IT industry. I would prefer to be known as singer Babul. This is a new role and I will do my best," Babul Supriyo said.

Menaka Guruswamy was one of the litigants in the marriage equality case in the apex court. She also represented Bengal, along with Kapil Sibal, in the RG Kar Medical College rape-murder case and recently, the I-PAC case in the SC.

Rajeev Kumar served as the DGP of West Bengal from July 2024 until his retirement on January 31, 2026. He was in the spotlight during the 2019 CBI raid at his residence in connection with the Saradha chit fund scam probe.

The elections to the Upper House will be conducted on March 16.

19-yr-old's 'encounter' death snowballs into Punjab row

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

THE death of 19-year-old Ranjit Singh in an alleged encounter by the Punjab Police in connection with the killings of two police personnel in Gurdaspur has snowballed into a major controversy, with the chorus for an independent inquiry growing louder.

Gurdaspur Congress MP Sukhjinder Singh Randhawa has written a letter to Home Minister Amit Shah, demanding an inquiry by the NIA or CBI as the family has refused to accept Ranjit's body seeking action against police. Human rights and religious organisations have also demanded a probe.

In his letter, Randhawa said, "A 19-year old youth was killed in an 'encounter'. His mother has asserted that he had been picked up from their home. Immediate transfer of probe to a central agency, such as the NIA or CBI, is needed, so that truth is pursued in a manner that restores public confidence."

The family members said they would take the body only after the state government registered murder charges against the police officers involved in the alleged encounter. Harvinder Singh Malhi, uncle of Ranjit, said the family had sought the intervention of the Supreme Court and the Punjab and Haryana High Court.

'Will only take body only after police taken to task'

The family members said they would take the body only after the state government registered murder charges against the police officers involved in the alleged encounter. Harvinder Singh Malhi, uncle of Ranjit, said the family had sought the intervention of the Supreme Court and the Punjab and Haryana High Court.

Ranjit's mother Sukhwinder Kaur alleged that police took her son on the pretext of questioning him in the killing of ASI Gurnam Singh and Home Guard jawan Ashok Kumar at the Adhian check post. "Police thrashed him badly and he died in their so-called interrogation. The post-mortem should be conducted by an independent panel of doctors," she said, demanding a CBI investigation.

Punjab Human Rights Organisation (PHRO) demanded that the government conduct an investigation by a judicial commission. Khalra Mission Organisation and Manukhi Adhikar Insaaf Sangarsh Committee requested the Chief Justice of the Punjab and Haryana High Court to take suo motu notice of the killing.

Leader of the Opposition Partap Singh Bajwa urged the Punjab and Haryana High Court Chief Justice to take suo motu cognisance of Ranjit's killing and order an independent and impartial probe.

"When a family expresses mistrust in the state machinery, it reflects the gravity of the situation. I fully support their demand for an independent and credible post-mortem," he said, demanding that the probe be handed over either to a High Court judge or to CBI.

Guns to governance for 120 surrendered Naxals

EJAZ KAISER @ Raipur

IN a shift from insurgency to courting parliamentary democracy, 120 former Maoists, who have been rehabilitated after their surrender, visited the Chhattisgarh Assembly on Friday. The group, including high-ranking former Naxal cadres who once saw the State as an adversary, witnessed legislative proceedings firsthand, marking what officials described as an "unforgettable day" in Chhattisgarh's history.

The ex-Maoist group was personally received by Chief Minister Vishnu Deo Sai and Deputy Chief Minister Vijay Sharma. Greeting the group with the traditional 'Jai Johar', Sai emphasised that his government's priority is ensuring a life of dignity and security for those who choose the path of the Constitution.

"It is a matter of great pride that our brothers and sisters, having left the path of violence, are today standing as witnesses to the democratic process. Enabling rehabilitated individuals to earn a respectful livelihood remains a top priority of the government. We have framed our rehabilitation policy accordingly," the CM said.

Sharma lauded the ex-Maoists for abandoning the path of the 'gun' and returning to the mainstream. "The path of the Constitution is the path of development, peace, and prosperity. The state government has been continuously working to ensure dignified lives, employment, and skill development opportunities for rehabilitated youth," he said.

Deputy CM expressed confidence that they would become agents of positive change in society and inspire others to return to the mainstream. "The people of Bastar had long desired change and under the guidance of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Union Home Minister Amit Shah, and the leadership of Chief Minister Sai, that vision is now being realised," he said.

The group, consisting of 66 men and 54 women, filled the assembly galleries, drawing an emotional response from the Assembly Speaker. Congratulating the youths for their courage in embracing the mainstream, the Speaker described the occasion as rare and historic, congratulating former Maoists for rejoining the democratic mainstream and accepting the Constitution.

The 120-member group represented a cross-section of the Maoist hierarchy — one central committee member, five Dandakaranya special zonal committee members, seven divisional committee members, 33 area committee members and 84 party members. Deputy CM Sharma hosted a dinner for the ex-Maoist group at his official residence in Naya Raipur.

2,704 Maoists have given up arms over two years

Ahead of the March 31, 2026, deadline to eliminate CPI (Maoist), Chhattisgarh witnesses a profound transition as 2,704 Maoist cadres have surrendered over the past two years. With only weeks remaining for the target date, security forces have maintained high pressure while keeping the door to rehabilitation wide open. CM Sai said the massive surrenders are not just the figures, but a testament to the trust, security, and stability that is now returning to Maoist-affected areas.

Gujarat wetland authority formed, but not a single meeting held in two years

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

THE Gujarat government has stated in the Assembly that the Gujarat State Wetland Authority has not held a single meeting in the last two years, even as the 24-member body exists as the nodal body to manage the state's wetlands since 2017.

The government made the admission in the House in response to a question asked by Congress MLA Anant Patel.

Gujarat has the highest wetland area in the country. The 2011 study by the Space Applications Centre, Ahmedabad, estimated about 1,50,174 sq km of wetlands in the country, which was about 6.9 per cent of India's total geographical area. This study found Gujarat to have about 34,350 sq km of wetlands, which was 17.6 per cent of the state's geographical area and 22.9 per cent of the national wetlands. The state's coastal wetlands form about 35.8 per cent of the total wetland area in the country.

The important wetlands in the state include Great Rann of Kachchh and Wildlife Sanctuary, Wild Ass Sanctuary in Little Rann, Nalsarovar Lake and Bird Sanctuary and Porbandar Bird Sanctuary among others.

The structural design of the authority includes the Minister for Forests as its chairman, chief secretary as vice chairperson and 21 senior officials as members. Despite the high-profile nature of its leadership, its inability to hold regular meetings shows little governance of the wetlands in the state, even as it has a robust definition of wetlands as hydrologically sensitive zones.

The state government acknowledges wetlands as dynamic ecological systems, which support specialised vegetation and aquatic biodiversity, yet the very authority meant to safeguard them has not convened any meetings to assess threats, encroachments or conservation priorities.

The definition under the Ramsar Convention treats wetlands as a broad continuum, which expands the governance responsibility far beyond isolated water bodies.

Global benchmarks and governance responsibility

The definition under the Ramsar Convention treats wetlands as a broad continuum from marshes and lakes to mangroves, and lagoons, which expands the governance responsibilty.

India, EU release trade pact text

Legal doc contains provisions on trade facilitation, rules of origin, IPR, digital trade and CBAM

PUSHPITA DEY @ New Delhi

THE European Union and India on Friday released the full text of the long-negotiated India–EU free trade agreement (FTA), detailing provisions on customs and trade facilitation, rules of origin, intellectual property rights, services and digital trade, as well as trade and sustainable development.

The 20-chapter agreement addresses several long-standing sticking points in the negotiations, including sanitary and phytosanitary (SPS) measures and clarifications around the EU's Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism (CBAM).

An annexure on model mediation procedures has been included in the pact, the conclusion of which was announced on January 27. The agreement is expected to be formally signed later this year and is likely to come into force next year. The EU has indicated that detailed tariff schedules will be released at a later stage.

Data protection, digital trade

The text provides clarity on data protection, explicitly affirming that each side retains the sovereign right to determine its own level of protection for personal data and privacy.

"Each Party may adopt and maintain the safeguards it deems appropriate to ensure the protection of personal data and privacy, including through the adoption and application of rules for the cross-border transfer of personal data," the agreement states.

While the digital trade chapter supports the free flow of data across borders for commercial purposes, it preserves each country's authority to frame and enforce rules on privacy and security.

The agreement also rules out customs duties on electronic transmissions and restricts mandatory disclosure of source code to specific regulatory requirements.

FTA rules out customs duties on e-transmissions

The agreement rules out customs duties on electronic transmissions and restricts mandatory disclosure of source code to specific regulatory requirements. While the digital trade chapter supports the free flow of data across borders for commercial purposes, it preserves each country's authority to frame and enforce rules on privacy and security.

Remedies, transparency

The FTA mandates greater transparency in anti-dumping and countervailing duty investigations. Both sides are required to notify the other before initiating a probe and to allow consultations—at least seven days after the invitation—prior to launching a countervailing investigation.

Interested parties must be given an opportunity to present their views. Before issuing a final decision, authorities are required to disclose essential facts in writing and provide detailed reasons in any preliminary findings.

CBAM, climate measures

On carbon border measures, the pact states both sides shall apply no less favourable conditions to the other party's goods than those granted to like goods from third countries with respect to any flexibilities in implementing CBAM. Regarding the EU's CBAM, which has been a contentious issue in the talks, the bloc has committed to endeavour to support India's greenhouse gas emission reduction efforts, including through mobilisation of financial resources, tools, instruments and related investments. While no special exemption has been granted to India, the EU has pledged assistance for India's long-term industrial transformation to align with CBAM requirements.

Non-tariff measures

In services, the agreement expands market access in sectors such as information technology, banking and financial services, telecommunications and professional services. It also eases norms for the temporary movement of qualified professionals. The text addresses non-tariff barriers, particularly SPS measures, stating that such regulations must protect human, animal or plant life or health while facilitating trade.

India will become $4 tn economy by next fiscal: CEA

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

INDIA will have to wait for longer to achieve the $4 trillion target. Earlier, the government had estimated that the target will be achieved by the end of the current financial year.

However, the latest GDP estimates show the nominal GDP of the country has declined from the ₹357 lakh crore in the old series to ₹345.5 lakh crore in the new series. At an average exchange rate of ₹87, India's GDP in dollar terms would fall short of $4 trillion.

"Based on current projections, India is expected to cross the $4 trillion mark comfortably in 2026-27, though relative global rankings will depend on external factors," chief economic advisor V Anantha Nageswaran told media here on Friday.

However, he said that India is firmly on course to become one of the world's largest economies. "The exact timing of becoming the third or fourth largest will depend not only on domestic growth but also on exchange rate movements and the performance of other economies," he said.

As per IMF estimates, the Indian economy was supposed to cross the $4 trillion-mark in FY26 and reach around $4.96 trillion in FY28. By FY29, India was projected to hit $5.46 trillion, and surpass $6 trillion by 2030. India was also supposed to become the 4th-largest economy in the current financial year surpassing Japan. But with the new series and revised nominal GDP numbers, India is now unlikely to achieve this target as well.

As per data released by MoSPI on Friday, Nominal GDP or GDP at current prices is estimated to attain a level of ₹345.47 lakh crore in the year 2025-26, against ₹318.07 lakh crore in 2024-25, showing a growth rate of 8.6%.

Fiscal deficit at 63% of full year target by Jan-end

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

FISCAL deficit of the central government by the end of January stood at ₹9.8 lakh crore, or 63% of the annual Budget target for 2025-26 as against 74.5% in the year-ago period, government data released on Friday showed.

The Centre estimates the fiscal deficit (the gap between expenditure and revenue) during 2025-26 at 4.4% of GDP or ₹15.58 lakh crore. The Centre received ₹27.08 lakh crore (79.5% of corresponding RE 2025-26 of total receipts) up to January 2026, as per the monthly accounts released by the Controller General of Accounts (CGA). It comprised ₹20.94 lakh crore of tax revenue (net to Centre), ₹5.57 lakh crore of non-tax revenue and ₹57,129 crore of non-debt capital receipts.

The CGA data showed ₹11.39 lakh crore has been transferred to state governments as devolution of share of taxes by Government of India, which is ₹65,588 crore higher than the previous year.

Further, total expenditure incurred by Government of India is ₹36.9 lakh crore (74.3% of corresponding Revised Estimate 2025-26), out of which ₹28.47 lakh crore was on revenue account and ₹8.42 lakh crore on capital account.

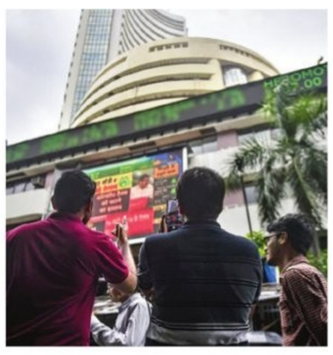
Mkts fall up to 2.5% this week on global cues

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

WITH global cues turning negative and FII selling picking up pace, India's equity market has come under a severe bearish grip with the benchmark indices – BSE Sensex and NSE Nifty50 – sliding up to 2.45% this week. On Friday, the Sensex tanked 961.42 points or 1.17% to settle at 81,287.19 while the Nifty tumbled 317.90 points or 1.25% to end at 25,178.65.

Vinod Nair, head of research, Geojit Investments said the lack of progress in US-Iran nuclear talks has intensified concerns of further escalation of Middle East tensions, while persistent AI-related uncertainty is also supporting safe-haven flows.

Domestically, a risk-off tone prevails as the earnings season winds down and global macro factors take precedence. Although IT stocks are witnessing selective low-level buying after recent corrections, the broader trend remains subdued. With FIIs staying cautious and volatility likely to resurface, markets may continue to trade within a narrow range, added Nair.



Foreign Institutional Investors (FIIs) offloaded equities worth ₹3,466 crore on Thursday. On Friday, the selling escalated and FII net sales stood at ₹7,356 crore. Pravesh Gour, senior technical analyst at Swastika Investmart, said the decline is driven by global risk aversion, subdued institutional participation, and profit booking following the recent recovery.

"Elevated US bond yields, uncertainty around the global interest rate trajectory, and mixed economic data from major economies have kept sentiment fragile. Persistent geopolitical tensions between the US and Iran, along with volatility in crude oil prices, are further weighing on confidence as traders trim positions ahead of key domestic and global triggers," said Gour.

Going forward, he added that investors should closely track global bond yields, crude oil trends, and currency movements, particularly the rupee against the dollar. The market is also expected to react on the Q3 GDP numbers that came after trading hours on Friday. The Q3FY27 GDP growth estimate stood at 7.8%.

Sujan Hajra, chief economist & Executive Director, Anand Rathi Group, said the better-than-expected numbers have clear market implications.

Realty, auto, FMCG stocks fall; IT pack shows resilience

Realty, auto and FMCG stocks fell most on Friday, while IT pack showed some resilience and managed to end on a flat note. The broader markets saw profit booking, with both midcap and smallcap indices declining by around 1% each, reflecting cautious sentiment

Industry body questions legal validity of telecom dept's SIM-binding mandate

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

AS the deadline for the SIM-binding mandate approaches, an industry body has questioned the legal validity of the government's directive.

The Broadband India Forum (BIF), which represents major tech firms like Meta and Google, cited a senior counsel's opinion that termed the direction as "ultra vires the parent legislation" and "unconstitutional". In a letter dated February 23 to Department of Telecommunications (DoT) secretary Amit Agrawal, BIF highlighted the legal opinion, which concluded that the Telecommunications (Telecom Cyber Security) Amendment Rules, 2025, and recent directives regarding 'SIM-binding' exceed the authority granted under the parent Telecommunications Act, 2023.

The matter pertains to a direction issued by the central government in November to ensure that app-based communication services such as WhatsApp, Signal, and Telegram are continuously linked to a user's active SIM card.

BIF, in its letter to the DoT, said the legal opinion provided by a senior counsel concluded that the amendment rules and the consequential directions are "ultra vires the parent legislation and are unconstitutional."

Union telecom minister Jyotiraditya Scindia, earlier this week during a briefing, said the decision on SIM-binding rules will not change."There are some issues that are national security issues, and on national security issues, there can be no compromise," he asserted.

It stated that, as per legal opinion, by introducing and regulating Telecommunication Identifier User Entities (TIUEs), which are non-authorised entities, the Amendment Rules alter the class of persons subject to telecom regulation and extend the statutory scope of the Act via delegated legislation.

Skilled talent shortages rise to 82% in India

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Chennai

ARTIFICIAL intelligence skills become the most sought-after skillset by enterprises in India in the fast-evolving world. Nearly 82% of Indian employers are finding it difficult to get skilled talents in 2026, as per US-based ManPower Group's Global Talent Shortage Survey.

India's talent shortage at 82% is significantly higher than the global average (72%), it stated. For the first time, AI knowledge has surpassed all other areas of expertise to become the most difficult skill for employers to find, overtaking traditional engineering and IT capabilities. The staffing solutions company surveyed 3,051 employers in India. AI literacy and AI model development emerged among the hardest skills to find.

At 94%, automotive industry has the highest scarcity of talent in India followed by sectors like finance & insurance (85%), tech & IT services (84%), logistics (81%), manufacturing (79%), hospitality (76%). Sandeep Gulati, MD, India and Middle-East, ManpowerGroup, said, "India's talent shortage at 82%, much above global average of 72%, signals a structural transformation in labour market rather than a cyclical one. The surge in demand for AI skills — AI literacy and model development — reflects AI is not replacing jobs but reshaping how work gets done."

Have enough coal to meet summer demand: CIL

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

COAL India Limited (CIL), India's largest coal miner, on Friday said it has sufficient coal supplies to meet the anticipated rise in power demand during the summer season.

As per the company, coal stocks at domestic coal-based power plants stood at nearly 55 million tonnes (MT) as of February 25 — the highest ever for this period. In addition, there is a transit stock of 5.5 MT of coal at goods sheds, washeries, and ports combined. Coal India's producing subsidiaries were holding sizeable pithead coal stocks of around 115 MT as of February 26, 2026, which are expected to increase further by the close of the fiscal year.

Moreover, CIL said its three-layer buffer across the supply chain — coal inventory at CIL's pitheads, coal stocks at thermal power plants, and ready-to-extract in-situ coal in its mines — assures comfortable coal availability as the summer season begins.

The cumulative quantity of Coal India's pithead stock, plant stock at domestic coal-based thermal power stations and exposed coal in-situ provides strong operational assurance —Senior official, Coal India Limited

The total readily available coal across these sources is approximately 175.5 MT. This level of domestic coal sufficiency in the system can meet any spurt in power demand as well as demand from other sectors, dispelling concerns about coal shortages. The in-situ coal exposure at mines contributing to 90% of CIL's total annual output was 60.2 MT at the end of the first fortnight of February 2026.

This means large quantities of coal have already been uncovered through overburden removal and are ready for extraction and supply at short notice. Higher domestic coal availability could help reduce imports. Meanwhile, international coal prices have shown an upward trend as of February 2026.

"The cumulative quantity of CIL's pithead stock, plant stock at domestic coal-based thermal power stations and exposed coal in-situ provides strong operational assurance", said a senior official of CIL.

Maruti to open 700 NEXA Studio outlets by 2030-31 to attract non-urban buyers

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

MARUTI Suzuki India (MSIL) plans to open up to 700 outlets of its small format premium retail chain NEXA Studio by 2030-31 as it looks to attract car buyers in non-urban centers. The company has opened the 200th NEXA Studio outlet at Kharkhoda in Haryana.

"By 2030-31, we are aiming something between 600 to 700 NEXA Studio outlets across the country…At present NEXA Studio accounts for around 8- 10% of sales from the overall NEXA channel. By 2030-31 we are expecting that it should be at least 25 to 30%," said Maruti Suzuki India senior executive officer, marketing & sales, Partho Banerjee.

Maruti's NEXA channel accounts for 40% of its overall sales, with the rest coming from its mass market chain ARENA. NEXA sales network presently has over 740 outlets across more than 530 cities.

Banerjee said despite being small in size, the NEXA Studio outlets offer the same premium experience as a full format NEXA outlet in big cities and metros, including EV charging facilities as the company seeks to trickle down electrification to smaller cities and towns. The company has recently rolled out its first electric vehicle, e VITARA SUV in the domestic market.

JAPAN

CORE INFLATION FALLS BELOW BOJ'S 2% TARGET

Annual core inflation in Tokyo slowed in February, running below the Bank of Japan's 2% target for the first time in 16 months, data showed on Friday. This development will heighten friction between the central bank and the government on the future path of rate hikes. The data is in line with the BOJ's projection that consumer inflation will temporarily slow due to the impact of fuel subsidies and the base effect of last year's spike, before reaccelerating on steady wage gains. The Tokyo core consumer price index, which excludes volatile costs of fresh food, rose 1.8% in the year to February after a 2.0% gain in January, data showed, falling below the 2% target for the first time since October 2024. It compared with a median market forecast for a 1.7% gain. The slowdown reflected the effect of fuel subsidies and the abolition of gasoline tax surcharges, while a wave of food price hikes has also run its course.

PHILIPPINES

BANK ASSETS REACH HISTORIC HIGH OF PHP 29.86 TN

Philippines bank assets concluded 2025, reaching a record PHP 29.86 trillion, representing an 8.87% increase from the previous year. The Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) data indicates that this growth was largely fuelled by an expanding loan book and increased investments. Universal and commercial banks maintained the majority of these assets at PHP 27.88 trillion. Digital banks experienced the highest growth rate, surging by 40.54% to PHP 165.35 billion, whilst rural and cooperative banks saw a 9.17% decline. The sector's net loan portfolio climbed by 11.89% to PHP 16.61 trillion, and net financial investments grew by 10.51% to PHP 8.59 trillion. Total liabilities also rose by 8.86% to PHP 26.19 trillion, primarily driven by a 7.4% increase in total deposits. This robust asset growth aligns with the central bank's monetary easing cycle.

SOUTH KOREA

CENTRAL BANK HOLDS POLICY RATES

South Korea's central bank maintained status quo on interest rates on Thursday and signalled policy would stay unchanged for the next six months as a chip boom in exports and steady inflation allow policymakers more time to assess financial stability risks. The Bank of Korea's (BOK) seven-member monetary policy board voted to keep its benchmark interest rate unchanged at 2.50. The BOK raised this year's growth forecast to 2.0% from 1.8% previously. It introduced the Federal Reserve's dot plot style chart on Thursday that shows where the policy rate would be in the next six months. Of the 21 dots, 16 were at 2.50%, meaning a predominant view for no change in the rate until at least August this year. South Korea's policy-sensitive three-year treasury bond futures rose 0.21 points to 105.49. The BOK recently signalled a pause in its easing cycle that began in October 2024, as it navigates currency market volatility.

INDIA HOPE TO HALT WEST WIND IN EAST

Holders' biggest challenge will be to keep opponent batters in check

FIROZ MIRZA @ Kolkata

EVEN in their defeat against South Africa in the Super Eights clash at Ahmedabad a few days ago, two-time champions West Indies bettered their record of most sixes by any team in an edition of the T20 World Cup. With 11 sixes in the match, their overall tally reached 66 - four more than the previous record set by the Caribbean side in the last edition.

West Indian batters preferring the aerial route is nothing new. It started 10 years ago when former captain Daren Sammy, now head coach of the team, put emphasis on the team's strategy of dealing in boundaries - the move that worked wonders as they went on to win their second title.

Despite playing 53 dot balls, Shai Hope and Co ended up scoring 176/8 in 20 overs in their latest outing, which once again underlines their gung-ho approach no matter what the situation is - even it meant six of their top seven batters ended up holing out to fielders.

And Sunday is expected to be no different at the Eden Gardens in Kolkata with their contest against India turning out to be a virtual quarterfinal. It was South Africa pacers - Lungi Ngidi (3/30) and Kagiso Rabada (2/22) - who broke the backbone of Windies batters, who anyway were in pursuit of boundaries irrespective of the situation. Onus will be on India pace spearhead Jasprit Bumrah and Arshdeep Singh, who have claimed seven and eight wickets respectively from five matches so far with Hardik Pandya expected to complement them.

Arshdeep spoke on West Indies' approach after India's 72-run win over Zimbabwe and said they will assess things on the day of the match. "It's not like they have only one gear. Today, if you look, they played really nicely in the middle as well. They took the game deep and then made around 180 runs. So I guess they can also adapt according to the situation," he observed while talking to reporters in the mixed zone. "Looking forward to the game, we'll see how the wicket plays and what the conditions are like. The focus right now is on recovery, and we'll assess things on game day."

Arshdeep Singh & Jasprit Bumrah

Varun Chakravarthy

PICS: ASHWIN PRASATH

Even as the left-arm pacer opined their next opponents have adopted a completely different approach after losing early wickets, West Indies performance so far suggests something entirely different. In the six matches they have played in the tournament, the boundary percentage in their total has always been above 60 except for the Group C match against Italy where it was 57. Remarkably, it was highest against the Proteas as they scored 126 runs in boundaries which included 15 fours and 11 sixes - around 72 per cent.

South Africa have given a template and if India bowlers manage to follow it and contain high-flying West Indies batters at Eden Gardens where boundaries are short, the Men in Blue can keep their dream of winning a second consecutive title alive.

Their previous record at the venue will only add to their confidence. Out of eight T20Is they played here, they have lost only once - the first match staged in October 2011. More importantly, West Indies have never beaten India in a T20I in Kolkata. They have lost all the four matches. India won twice while chasing the target and emerged winners in the remaining two while defending the total.

One thing that can help the Hope-led side will be their familiarity with the venue of late. They have played two matches here in the tournament so far beating Scotland and Italy by 35 and 42 runs respectively. India last played here in January when Varun Chakravarthy claimed 3/23 in his four overs to bowl out England for 132. Abhishek Sharma scored a 34-ball 79 to help India chase the target in 12.5 overs with seven wickets in hand.

Security beefed up at Eden Gardens

FIROZ MIRZA @ Kolkata

WITH West Bengal already politically charged up as Assembly elections are round the corner and India playing their first match in Kolkata at the ongoing T20 World Cup, a beefed up security is expected to be in place on Sunday.

It could be even twice or thrice the previous arrangement made for the Group stage matches. Besides, the final electoral list following the special intensive revision (SIR) in West Bengal will also be published on Saturday which in turn could add to the worries of the cops. "The deployment of forces will be twice or even thrice of the arrangement made for the past matches," a senior cop said. He said the additional security would be in place as India will be playing at the venue, which is already sold out. "We haven't received any request for special arrangement from the Cricket Association of Bengal in the wake of publication of the final electoral list on Saturday. Anyway, the strength of security personnel will be decided on Saturday. We are ready to counter any situation," added the cop.

Notably, the final electoral list with 60 lakh-plus names with 'adjudication marks' will also bear the names of deleted electors, with 'deleted' against their names. After publication of the final list, supplementary lists will also come out in phases.

The venue has witnessed unsavoury incidents in the past. Sachin Tendulkar's unfortunate run out in the first match of the Asian Test Championship in February 1999 is one of them. Infuriated with the mode of dismissal, the spectators pelted bottles and other objects at Shoaib Akhtar, who collided with Tendulkar leading to his run out, as he returned to his fielding position in the deep. Tendulkar's appeal might have pacified the crowd but all hell broke loose within 30 minutes of the play on the last day, prompting the police to forcibly vacate the ground filled with thousands of people.

Before it, the ODI World Cup semifinal between India and Sri Lanka had to be abandoned as the crowd turned violent with the co-hosts on the verge of losing the contest.

Same grief, different ways of mourning

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN & FIROZ MIRZA @ Kolkata/Chennai

ON Thursday, thousands flocked to the MA Chidambaram Stadium to see if the Indian team would win a must-win match. They were joined in spirit by millions, who were tuning in or streaming. Unknown to them, Rinku Singh, one of the 15 men tasked with winning the T20 World Cup, was battling something extremely personal.

The thought of not seeing his father alive for one final time. He had already said his goodbyes a few days earlier. On the bench, Rinku knew Friday was round the corner. But he didn't know it on Thursday. He would have longed for a medical miracle. Another quiet moment between a son and a father. To share another laugh. To listen to that one piece of music again. To reminisce. Late on Thursday, Rinku's father, who had been suffering from liver cancer, passed away. He left from Chennai for Aligarh for the final rites before rejoining his team in Kolkata on Friday. Sonu, one of Rinku's siblings, confirmed to this daily that his brother has left Aligarh to join the team. "He came here for the father's last rites. He has left to join the team in Kolkata."

It once again shines a light on how cricketers process personal tragedies on tour. How their grief can often be played out in the public eye. The importance of family cannot be overstated. It's generally everything and the only thing, especially when compared to a sport. The first thing Mohammed Siraj did after coming back from Australia in early 2021 was go to his father's final resting place. In a world filled with Covid rules and compulsory quarantine, the pacer opted to stay back and complete his maiden Test series in Australia. But he carried that burden throughout that series, grieving quietly in hotel rooms across Australia. After he came back, he dedicated all those wickets he picked to his father who had fuelled his cricketing dreams. "It was the most difficult time for me to be there at his burial place," the pacer had said. During the 1999 World Cup, Sachin Tendulkar missed the India - Zimbabwe game because of the death of his father in India. Sachin, who was very close to his father, was urged to rejoin the team by his family.

Athletes are said to be different because they generally have to pay through pain — the pain of a broken bone, a failing ankle, a dodgy knee or a fractured finger. But that can often be incomparable to the mental anguish of losing a loved one.

Will Jacks and Rehan Ahmed celebrate after beating New Zealand | AP

Will, Rehan seal Mumbai semis for England

ENS @ Chennai

FOR so long on Friday night, the match on Saturday night was going to be contested for pride. Not anymore. With Will Jacks and Rehan Ahmed taking England over the line in a thriller, Pakistan are alive. The smart money is still on the Kiwis advancing to the semifinal stage of the tournament but Pakistan now know that a big win over Sri Lanka will take them through on NRR.

On NRR, the Black Caps are way superior at +1.39. Pakistan, who copped a defeat at the hands of England, are on -0.46. If Pakistan are to overturn that deficit, they need to either win by over 65 runs or chase down any target in under 13 overs or so. These figures are an approximation and it will become clear once the first innings in Saturday's match in complete. England will wait to see who they play in Mumbai. BRIEF SCORES: New Zealand 159/7 in 20 ovs (Phillips 39, Seifert 35; Jacks 2/23) lost to England: 161/6 in 19.3 ovs (Jacks 32 n.o; Rachin 3/19).

Happy Hardik key for India

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @ Chennai

IN a must-win Super 8s game against Zimbabwe at the MA Chidambaram Stadium on Thursday, India all-rounder Hardik Pandya was key to help his team win by 72 runs. Pandya came up with a gem of a innings, an unbeaten 50, to set a good total for India.

"Pretty happy. Yes, it sounds like a 23-ball 50, but I think I had to reassess in the situation as well. Just in the game, I realized I can time the ball and hit sixes as well," Pandya said.

PAKISTAN SEEK SEMIS BERTH

As New Zealand went down to England, Pakistan have an outside chance to make it to the semifinals. They will face Sri Lanka in a must-win game where net run rate will be crucial. A look...

Eyes on Salman

One of the underwhelming aspects of Pakistan's campaign so far is Salman Agha's captaincy. Agha have not contributed much individually, but more than that his on-field calls has been disappointing. Against SL, he cannot take any chances as Agha and head coach Mike Hesson will have to bring their A game.

What they need?

While toss will be crucial for Pakistan, should they bat first, the 2009 winners will have to win by a margin of 65 runs approximately. If they were to chase, they have to get past the total in 13 overs or less approximately. The Agha-led side have their task cut out for them in what is their last chance to make it to the semifinals.

Effiong double stuns Bengaluru

SAPTARSHI C @ Bengaluru

EFFIONG Nsungusi's brace sunk Bengaluru FC, as they were handed a 0-2 loss by Punjab FC in the Indian Super League at the Sree Kanteerava Stadium on Friday. After a cagey opening 20 minutes, Punjab FC broke the deadlock thanks to Nsungusi.

He rose above everyone else to fire a header in at the near post from Manglenthang Kipgen. Punjab FC doubled their lead 10 minutes later as Nsungusi scored his second with a powerful shot off his left foot from the edge of the box to fire it past a diving Gurpreet Singh Sandhu.

An intense battle followed for the rest of the first half, with Punjab FC taking a 2-0 lead into the break.

Action during the match between Bengaluru FC & Punjab FC | AIFF

The second half saw Renedy make three changes to with Meetei, Kuziev, and Sunil Chhetri coming on to replace Sana, Suresh, and Sivasakthi. Bengaluru FC came close to pulling one back, as a good release pass from the midfield saw Ryan Williams break into space on the right flank, and put in an excellent low cross for Sunil Chhetri, but the veteran Indian fired it over the goal.

Around the 69th minute, Punjab FC Kipgen walked off the field with a limp. The remainder of the match saw neither team change the scoreline further. This marks Punjab FC's first win of the season. Punjab FC coach Panagiotis Dilmperis was humble in victory. "I am really impressed by the way BFC played in the match They kept the ball low, which is very uncommon in Indian football," he said. For the hosts, it would be a tough loss to digest, considering that this is their third game at home on the trot.

Ranji Trophy: Jammu & Kashmir on verge of creating history in Hubballi

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @ Chennai

AND, now, Jammu and Kashmir are united even when they are divided. United thanks to their love of cricket. United thanks to their undying love for feel-good stories. United thanks to their team on the verge of doing something unprecedented in the region's cricketing history. And everybody wants a piece of action. On Friday evening, Omar Abdullah, the region chief minister's, decided he would fly in to watch history unfold on the final day at Hubballi.

That history will surely arrive sometime after 2.00 PM in the city. There is one of more day's worth of cricket left in the final of the Ranji Trophy but it's purely academic in nature. Heavily-fancied Karnataka, eight-time champions with a plethora of India stars, past and present, trail by 477 runs. And they still need to pick up six wickets to start their fourth innings. This isn't champagne on ice. This is J & K's name already inked on the trophy, them becoming the 18th Indian state or region to win Indian cricket's greatest domestic honour. The 92-year-old competition has always had a penchant for surprise but this would surely be one of its greatest yet.

Jammu & Kashmir players celebrate after dismissing Karnataka for 293 | D HEMANTH

And like they have done so often this season, the man who broke through Karnataka's resistance on Friday was Auqib Nabi. The 29-year-old, who will surely be capped by India in the one-off Test against Afghanistan this Summer provided the seamer is fit, found Mayank Agarwal's pad in the innings 91st over. Agarwal, whose 160 had kept them in the game till that point, was given not out but Nabi reviewed the decision. The referral returned three reds. Two overs later, Nabi picked up his fifth of the innings, his 7th of a remarkable season. Karnataka's innings folded soon after for 293 to concede a lead of 291. J&K opted to bat again to completely guard against a Karnataka counter-attack with the bat. They suffered a minor hiccup but recovered to reach 184/4.

BRIEF SCORES: J&K 584 & 186/4 in 57 ovs (Iqbal batting 94) vs Karnataka 1st innings 293 all out in 93.3 ovs (Agarwal 160; Auqib Nabi 5/54). Full story: newindianexpress.com

Pakistan bombs Kabul, other cities after declaring 'open war' with Af

Largest bombardment of Afghan capital and first strikes on southern base of Taliban since 2021

SIMMERING TENSIONS

Over the last few months, the two have occasionally skirmished along their winding, porous frontier as tension has escalated. The latest confrontation is by far the most serious

October 8, 2025: The Pakistani Taliban ambushed a Pakistan Army convoy in Orakzai district, killing 11 soldiers. The assault was part of a broader wave of violence that has killed hundreds of civilians and security personnel in recent years

Mid-October: A Qatari-mediated ceasefire ended the fighting, although since then there have been repeated strikes and skirmishes in the frontier area, leading to dozens of deaths

Feb 22: Pakistan's military killed at least 70 militants in strikes along the border with Afghanistan

Feb 26: Afghanistan launched an extensive cross-border attack into Pakistan along six provinces

Feb 27: Pakistan carried out airstrikes in the early hours of Friday on the Afghan capital and two other areas, Kandahar and Paktia

ISLAMABAD

PAKISTAN on Friday said it was in an "open war" with Afghanistan after its forces killed more than 270 Taliban fighters and injured over 400 others in airstrikes in response to what Islamabad described as the cross-border attack by the Afghan Taliban.

Afghanistan's Taliban government spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid said that Afghan forces killed 55 Pakistani soldiers and targeted what he described as "important military objectives" inside Pakistan.

The Afghan Taliban attacked several check posts along the border late Thursday, apparently to avenge the air strikes carried out by Pakistan in Afghanistan's border areas on Sunday. Pakistan responded by hitting targets in Kabul, Kandahar and Paktia under 'Operation Ghazab lil Haq' early Friday. The 2,611-km-long border between Pakistan and Afghanistan is known as the Durand Line, which Kabul has not formally recognised.

"Our patience has run out. Now there is an open war between us...Now it will be 'Dama Dam Mast Qalandar'. Pakistan's army did not come from across the seas. We are your neighbours; we know your ins and outs," Pakistan's Defence Minister Khawaja Asif said.

Pakistan Army spokesperson Lt Gen Ahmad Sharif Chaudhry said that the Taliban came armed with quadcopters and small and big weapons, but the response by Pakistan was so effective that they were repulsed completely at all 53 places and "we gave effective response to target all 53 places".

A Taliban government spokesman Mujahid said that the recent strikes were intended to send a clear message that "our hand can reach their collar," adding that any "malicious act" by Pakistan would be answered "in Islamabad." Mujahid said that during last night's retaliatory operations, 19 Pakistani military posts and two headquarters were seized. He claimed 55 Pakistani soldiers were killed and several captured, Tolo News reported.

"Afghan forces recovered weapons, ammunition, one tank and a military transport vehicle. 13 Islamic Emirate soldiers were killed and 22 others wounded in the fighting," he said. Mujahid reiterated that Afghanistan seeks peaceful relations with neighbouring countries. PTI

China calls on both countries to reach truce

China on Friday called on Pakistan and Afghanistan to work out a ceasefire while expressing concern over the escalation of the conflict between the two countries. China is closely following the developments of the situation in the conflict between Pakistan and Afghanistan, Chinese Foreign Ministry spokesperson Mao Ning told a media briefing. Pakistan and Afghanistan are close neighbours, and both are neighbouring countries of China. As a neighbour and friend, China is deeply concerned about the escalation of the conflict and deeply saddened by the casualties caused by the conflict, Mao said.

ANTHROPIC REFUSES TO BEND TO PENTAGON ON AI SAFEGUARDS

WASHINGTON

AI company Anthropic said Thursday it would not give the US Defence Department unrestricted use of its technology despite being pressured to comply by the Pentagon. "These threats do not change our position: we cannot in good conscience accede to their request," Anthropic chief executive Dario Amodei said in a statement. Washington had given the artificial intelligence startup until Friday to agree to unconditional military use of its technology, even if it violates ethical standards at the company, or face being forced to comply under emergency federal powers.

Amodei said Anthropic models have been deployed by the Pentagon and intelligence agencies to defend the country but that it draws an ethical line regarding its use for mass surveillance of US citizens and fully-autonomous weapons.

"Using these systems for mass domestic surveillance is incompatible with democratic values," Amodei said. And leading AI systems are not yet reliable to be trusted to power deadly weapons without a human in ultimate control, he added. "We will not knowingly provide a product that puts America's warfighters and civilians at risk."

After meeting with Anthropic early this week, the Pentagon delivered a stark ultimatum: agree to unrestricted military use of its technology by 5:01 pm Friday or face being forced to comply under the Defense Production Act. The Cold War-era law grants the federal government sweeping powers to compel private industry to prioritise national security needs. AFP

China's legislature sacks 9 military men

BEIJING

CHINA'S legislature has dismissed 19 members, including nine who are military officers, one week ahead of the start of its annual meeting.

The late Thursday announcement did not say why the deputies had been removed, but such removals are generally tied to corruption investigations. An anti-corruption campaign launched by Chinese leader Xi Jinping shows no sign of letting up after more than a decade. The military has been targeted in recent years, including the removal of its top general last month, as Xi seeks to modernize the armed forces.

Analysts say the campaign is also a way for Xi, who is in his 14th year in power, to remove potential rivals and ensure loyalty among his subordinates.

The dismissals aren't likely to have a major impact on the meeting of the National People's Congress, which opens next Thursday and is expected to run for a week. The largely ceremonial legislature rubber stamps decisions made by the ruling Communist Party. PTI

Bill Clinton grilled by US lawmakers over connections to Jeffrey Epstein

WASHINGTON

FORMER US president Bill Clinton denied wrongdoing at a Congressional panel Friday on his well-documented links to Jeffrey Epstein, as Democrats seek to shift focus toward Donald Trump's own ties to the convicted sex offender.

Clinton features prominently throughout the Epstein files, but he insists that he broke ties well before the disgraced billionaire's 2008 conviction for sex offenses.

"I saw nothing, and I did nothing wrong," Clinton said in his opening statement, shared on social media.

The Republican chair of the House committee probing Epstein, James Comer, said ahead of Bill Clinton's deposition he looked forward to "asking lots of questions."

He follows his wife, former secretary of state Hillary Clinton, who testified Thursday, defiantly calling for President Trump -- who like Bill Clinton had many ties with Epstein -- to appear before the panel.

The lawmakers should ask Trump "directly under oath about the tens of thousands of times he shows up in the Epstein files," she said.

The depositions are being held behind closed doors, with Bill Clinton likening the proceedings to a "kangaroo court."

The grilling comes with greater peril for the former president than for his wife, as he has acknowledged extensive interactions with Epstein. AFP

What the files says about Bill

Bill Clinton has not been accused of a crime or formally investigated. But he features prominently throughout the latest Epstein files disclosures

IN HOT WATER

Bill Clinton features prominently in the trove of investigative files related to Epstein released by the Justice Department but has not been accused of any wrongdoing

In another, Clinton is pictured swimming alongside a dark-haired woman who appears to be Epstein's accomplice Ghislaine Maxwell

Previously unseen photographs from the files include one showing the former president reclining in a hot tub, part of the image obscured by a stark black rectangle

Clinton has acknowledged flying on Epstein's private plane several times in the early 2000s for Clinton Foundation-related humanitarian work

US and Iran wrap up latest nuclear talks without deal

GENEVA

IRAN and the United States held hours of indirect negotiations Thursday over Tehran's nuclear program but walked away without a deal, leaving the danger of another Mideast war on the table as the US has gathered a massive fleet of aircraft and warships in the region.

Oman's Foreign Minister Badr al-Busaidi, who mediated the talks in Geneva, said there had been "significant progress in the negotiation" without elaborating.

But just before the talks ended, Iranian state television reported that Tehran was determined to continue enriching uranium, rejected proposals to transfer it abroad and sought the lifting of international sanctions, indicating it was not prepared to meet US President Donald Trump's demands.

Trump wants a deal to constrain Iran's nuclear program, and he sees an opportunity while the country is struggling at home with growing dissent following nationwide protests. Iran also hopes to avert war, but maintains it has the right to enrich uranium and does not want to discuss other issues, like its long-range missile program or support for armed groups like Hamas and Hezbollah.

Al-Busaidi said technical talks involving lower-level representatives would continue next week in Vienna, the home of the International Atomic Energy Agency. The United Nations' atomic watchdog likely would be critical in any deal.

The stakes could hardly be higher. If America attacks, Iran has said US military bases in the region would be considered legitimate targets, putting at risk tens of thousands of American service members. Iran has also threatened to attack Israel. "There would be no victory for anybody — it would be a devastating war," Araghchi told India Today in an interview recorded Wednesday just before he flew to Geneva. AP

US urged to drop 'excessive demands'

Iran's Foreign Minister Abbas Araghchi said on Friday that in order to reach a deal, the United States will have to drop its "excessive demands", after the two sides held talks in Geneva. In a phone call with Egypt's top diplomat Badr Abdelatty, Araghchi said "success in this path requires seriousness and realism from the other side". Araghchi did not clarify what demands he was referring to, but Washington has pointed to Iran's ballistic missile programme repeatedly described Tehran's uranium enrichment capability as a red line.

Denmark 1st in EU to eliminate mother-to-child HIV: WHO

COPENHAGEN

DENMARK has become the first EU country to eliminate the mother-to-child transmission of HIV and syphilis, the World Health Organization (WHO) said on Friday.

"The elimination of mother-to-child transmission of HIV and syphilis marks a major public health achievement for Denmark," WHO chief Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus said in a statement. He added: "This milestone demonstrates that with strong political commitment and consistent investment in primary care and integrated maternal and child health services, countries can protect every pregnant woman and newborn from these diseases."

The international health body said Denmark had met its required targets for elimination from 2021 to 2024, "including low transmission rates and high coverage of prenatal testing and treatment for pregnant women."

"Elimination means testing and treating at least 95 out of every 100 pregnant women—and keeping new infant infections below 50 per 100 000 births," Hans Kluge, WHO Regional Director for Europe, said.

According to WHO figures, Denmark has low rates of HIV and syphilis among pregnant women. Around 5,950 people are living with HIV in Denmark, and less than 0.1 percent of pregnant women are affected.

"This validation by WHO is a proud moment for Denmark," Health Minister Sophie Lohde said. Denmark is now working toward eliminating hepatitis B as part of broader "triple elimination" goal. Agencies

DAY'S DIARY

Science Day

National Science Day is celebrated annually across India, on this day, to commemorate the discovery of the Raman Effect by CV Raman in 1928

RAMAN EFFECT

In simple terms, it is a phenomenon in spectroscopy, which is defined as the change in the wavelength of light that occurs when a light beam is deflected by molecules

SCIENTIST'S CURIOSITY

Raman began conducting many experiments to observe how light behaved while it passed through different types of substances

WHY SCIENCE DAY?

FOOD ON REELS

A Bengaluru home cook's growing rise on Insta - 90k followers in a span of just two weeks - is offering a window into what young IT professionals are eating and what they could be eating better

SRUTHI HEMACHANDRAN

MERA naam Raji hai! Main Bengaluru ke top engineers ke ghar pe khana banati hoon, but inka khana bohot alag hai!" It's likely you stayed, watching a few seconds more as Rajshree Manger Thapa, aka Raji, introduced herself and cooked 'ghar ka khana'. With her innocence and no-nonsense kitchen updates, the Darjeeling-born cook has emerged as the new face quietly building an audience on Instagram, offering insight into what Bengaluru professionals are eating and what they actually should eat.

Raji's first reel went live earlier this month, on Feb 14. The videos are simple in format – steady shots, minimal editing and a focus on the food, its nutritional values and the process of cooking. By Friday (Feb 27), her page had crossed a whopping 91k followers. "I didn't expect something like this to happen. We're working hard as well," Raji says, describing the sudden attention and steady work that have followed, adding, "Madam told me before starting the page that I might get famous, but this feels unreal."

The 'madam' she refers to is Aishwarya Sunil, co-founder and CEO of a marketing agency, the mind shaping the page. She first noticed Raji on WhatsApp, where short, playful cooking videos hinted at a natural comfort with the camera. "She used to post TikTok-style stories. That's when I knew this could work," Sunil reminisces.

The idea followed soon after. Sunil wanted to create a nutrition-focused page and asked Raji if she would be the face of it, and the answer was 'yes'. This simple exchange turned into a format and is now resonating with thousands of young professionals. "I started making meal plans that were nutritious but didn't feel like restriction – food that people would actually want to eat," Sunil shares, adding, "Raji brings those plans to life," while Raji asserts, "Madam does more hard work than me."

Cooking daily for 'IT professionals' has given Raji a front-row view into their eating habits. "Most ask about protein. In many houses, meals follow a fixed schedule," the 35-year-old shares, innocence evident in her voice, further revealing, "In other homes, groceries arrive at the last minute. Then I cook based on whatever is available that day."

The seed of the idea was a common thread she found through research: regularly eating out. On a personal level, they observed lives around them: long workdays, fatigue and convenience-first choices. On a professional level, Sunil's background in marketing revealed worrying trends – rising cases of fatty liver and prediabetes among young folks, along with an increase in liver-care supplement consumption.

One major misconception about home food, they both agree, is that it lacks variety or flavour. Balancing taste and nutrition comes down to ensuring all macros are present and pairing meals with something flavour-forward, often as simple as a chutney. The journey itself hasn't felt particularly challenging for Raji. Cooking became part of her life after moving to Bengaluru in 2023.

For young professionals struggling to find the time or motivation to eat better, Raji leaves a gentle reminder. "People should try eating home-style food. It's hard to find that outside," she ends with a laugh.

THE SAMARTHANAM EFFECT:
REDEFINING 'ABILITY' IN A CHANGING WORLD

Nearly three decades ago, when most 25-year-olds were just beginning their careers, Dr. Mahantesh G. Kivadasannavar took a leap driven not by strategy but by urgency. As a young visually impaired graduate, he was not studying business plans or global maps—he was confronting a harsher reality: talented peers with disabilities were being denied opportunity, not because of lack of ability, but because society lacked expectation. That realization led to the founding of Samarthanam, born from necessity rather than ambition.

The vision was simple yet radical for its time: if platforms did not exist for persons with disabilities, they had to be created. While Dr. Mahantesh did not foresee a global footprint spanning India, the UK, and the US, he did imagine a world where a blind child could aspire to be a software engineer, a world-class musician, or a champion cricketer. That clarity made the risk of starting an NGO straight out of college feel inevitable.

From Sympathy to Empowerment

What has sustained Samarthanam for 29 years is a philosophy anchored in lived experience: the journey from sympathy to empathy, and finally, to empowerment. Charity, Dr. Mahantesh believes, is never enough—opportunity is what restores dignity. At the heart of Samarthanam lies the idea of Samarthya, or inherent potential. This belief is not aspirational rhetoric but operational DNA, shaping every program and partnership. While technology and economies evolve, the human need for self-reliance remains constant, and Samarthanam has built its mission around that truth.

The Trust Factor

This clarity of purpose has made Samarthanam a preferred partner for global corporates and CSR leaders. The organization speaks the language of impact and accountability. With outcomes such as a 67% placement rate for youth with disabilities in mainstream employment and transparent reporting systems, Samarthanam positions CSR not as charity, but as investment. Donors are treated as stakeholders in a shared mission—one that delivers measurable, life-changing returns while building a more inclusive economy.

Excellence as the Antidote to Stigma

What truly sets Samarthanam apart is its refusal to think small. It believes that excellence is the most powerful response to stigma. Through the Cricket Association for the Blind in India, Samarthanam has shown the world that visually impaired cricketers can lift World Cup trophies with the same grit and skill as any mainstream athlete. Sport becomes more than competition—it becomes advocacy in motion.

Yet Samarthanam understands that while sport captures the spirit, art captures the soul. This insight led to Sunadha, a cultural ensemble of artists with disabilities that has delivered over 3,500 performances across India and abroad, proving that talent transcends limitation. Building on this momentum came Samarthanam Institute of Music and Performing Arts, affiliated with the Karnataka State Dr. Gangubai Hangal Music and Performing Arts University. At SIMPA, the arts are treated not as therapy or pastime, but as profession—complete with structured training, certification, and career pathways.

Among the most compelling ambassadors of this cultural movement are the Samarthanam Sisters, Anusha and Vasundhara—visually impaired vocalists who have carried the message of "Music for Inclusion" across the United States. Their performances have not only showcased artistic excellence but also supported the formation of the first-ever USA Women's Blind Cricket Team. This synergy—where music strengthens sport, sport amplifies advocacy, and both drive systemic change—defines Samarthanam's innovation.

Vision 2030: Scale with Soul

As Samarthanam looks toward its 40th year, Vision 2030 sets an ambitious goal: to positively impact one million lives. This is not expansion for its own sake, but the creation of a complete ecosystem of opportunity. Education stands at the core, with plans to fully digitize learning modules and expand an accessible digital library so that geography never determines destiny.

Through its Livelihood Resource Centres, Samarthanam aims to scale skill development, deepen corporate partnerships, and strengthen employment outcomes—because employment is dignity, and dignity is non-negotiable. Infrastructure development will continue through barrier-free campuses, hostels, training centres, and inclusive cultural spaces that physically reflect the society Samarthanam advocates.

Technology, too, is central to this future. As AI reshapes economies, Samarthanam is investing in tech-inclusion—exploring assistive and adaptive technologies so persons with disabilities become leaders in Industry 4.0, not spectators. Women's empowerment remains integral, with focused efforts on safe spaces, education, leadership, and sports for women with disabilities. In the coming decade, Samarthanam envisions blind cricket gaining sustained global recognition and SIMPA emerging as a world-class institution led by empowered artists themselves.

Leadership Beyond Limitation

Dr. Mahantesh's message to young people is both simple and profound: do not wait for the world to be ready. Courage is not the absence of fear, but the decision that something else matters more. Disability may shape identity, but it does not define destiny. Independence, he believes, is collective—true freedom lies in creating systems where thousands can stand on their own.

A Legacy in Motion

As Samarthanam approaches its 30th year, it stands not merely as a service provider but as proof of concept. From two students in a small Bengaluru office to a global movement impacting over 500,000 lives, it demonstrates that vision does not require sight—only an unshakeable belief in human dignity. The next decade is not just about growth, but about completing India's transition from "helping" the disabled to building a society designed for everyone.

Call to Action:

Be part of the next million stories. Support a student's journey to employment, a blind cricketer's path to the World Cup, or an artist's moment on stage. Your contribution fuels a movement rooted in dignity, inclusion, and lasting change.

HOW TO FOLLOW A PLANT-BASED DIET SAFELY: A PRACTICAL GUIDE

There's a misconception among people that a plant-based diet can't help you reach your dietary goals and balance your lifestyle properly. But that's not true. A plant-based diet, focusing on vegetables, fruits, grains, legumes, nuts and seeds can support health, performance and long-term disease prevention when planned properly.

KEY PRINCIPLES FOR A HEALTHY PLANT-BASED DIET

1. Meet protein needs

- Protein is essential for muscle repair, metabolic regulation and immune health.
- Include varied sources such as lentils, chickpeas, tofu, tempeh, edamame, beans and quinoa.
- Combining legumes with grains (e.g, rice and beans) helps ensure a complete amino acid profile.

2. Prioritise iron and zinc

- Plant iron (non-heme iron) is less absorbable than animal iron, but pairing it with vitamin-C rich foods (citrus, peppers, kiwi) enhances uptake.
- Good sources include spinach, lentils, pumpkin seeds and fortified cereals.
- Zinc, important for immunity and recovery, is available in beans, whole grains, nuts and seeds.

3. Mindful micronutrient planning

- Vitamin B12: Not naturally abundant in plant foods; supplementation or fortified foods are recommended.
- Calcium & Vitamin D: Fortified plant milks, leafy greens, tofu and sun exposure help maintain levels.
- Omega-3s: Flaxseeds, chia seeds, walnuts and algae-based supplements support healthy lipid profiles.

BALANCED MEAL STRATEGIES

Build meals around three components

- A protein base: Lentils, tofu, tempeh, seitan, beans
- Rich veggies & fibre: Leafy greens, cruciferous vegetables, colourful produce
- Complex carbohydrates: Brown rice, oats, quinoa, whole-grain bread

Include a healthy fat source (avocado, nuts, seeds, olive oil) in each meal to support satiety and nutrient absorption.

SMART SNACKING

- Hummus with whole-grain crackers
- Greek-style plant yoghurt with berries and seeds
- Trail mix (nuts+seeds+dried fruit)

With mindful food selection and occasional supplementation where needed, a plant-based lifestyle becomes a sustainable, energising way to support long-term wellness.

This arts festival is set to showcase experiences that rejoice in interplay of sight, sound, touch, taste, and smell

SENSE-ATIONAL

MAHIMA NAGARAJU

AS we navigate the world relying on our eyes and enjoy art, too, through the beauty of colours, lights, human expressions we take in from films, paintings, and performances of all kinds – it's easy to forget that the other five senses are there too. Always alert, picking up on scents, sounds, textures and tastes that round out our experience of everything but are hardly ever the complete focus of our attention. Pravaha 2026, a multi-sensory festival currently underway at Bangalore International Centre, Domlur, and continuing till March 1, seeks to awaken them all. "We're offering 15 events, each of them different in their own right and each having a sensorial element that they tap into," explains Sandhya Kannan, the festival's curator.

Two exhibits are on show throughout the duration of the festival. One 'Histories of Indian Perfume' introduces visitors to Indian perfumery through the ages with texts, paintings, records, and objects, while another, 'First-Hand' invites one to navigate a story while blindfolded, "In the first, curated in collaboration with the Marg Foundation, viewers will not just get to learn how perfumes evolved in India but they'll also get to smell some wonderful things. The second, by artist Nitish Jain is an experience with just 10 people in each session. They run through a story that plays on headphones and through the progression of the story, they are listening, tasting, smelling, and touching things, even drawing sometimes. It essentially taps into how you experience your world even without seeing, simply because of how much sensorial knowledge you already possess. In a climate where you are constantly mediating your experience with the world through the phone or laptop, it is 90 minutes where you're completely devoid of technological interference, which I find refreshing," comments Kannan.

Visitors explore the smells of Bengaluru in artist Indu Antony's 'Vasane' experience

While the first half of the festival included musical performances that combined sounds with scents exploring how memory is deeply tied with the two, sensorial explorations of coffee and more, the weekend has much to offer. 'Future Food Taste Test' by Edible Archives, a collective that studies and creates work on the intersection of food, climate and culture, is one, with attendees getting to taste and pay attention to the flavours and textures of ingredients showing up as ecosystems shift. Another, is 'Kadahin Milandaasin', a performance by musician Tarun Malani, which will be weaving together family archives, oral histories, and live improvisation. Kannan adds, "Tarun's album is essentially a love letter to Sindh and the influence that his grandfather had on him. What we're urging audiences to do is not just to listen to his memories and historical background, but to bring their own memories of childhood and their relationship with their grandparents to it. These are some of the ways in which we are taking traditional performances that already exist, but seeing how we can bring a new lens to it. Thereby expanding how people perceive existing works."

Gilli Nata, Gowrav Shetty, Shwetha drive a breezy one-time watch

A SHARADHAA

SUPER HIT
Director: Vijayanand
Cast: Gilli Nata, Gowrav Shetty, Shwetha, Pramod Shetty, and Sadhu Kokila

WHEN a film carries a title like Super Hit, it comes with expectations of full-on entertainment and crowd-pleasing moments. However, director Vijayanand takes a lighter route, putting together a conversational road story that leans on humour, character quirks, and small emotional beats rather than big dramatic turns.

The story unfolds through the journey of Satya (Gowrav Shetty), Madhu (Shwetha), and Bhupathi (Gilli Nata). Satya carries a quiet aim of fulfilling his mother's wish to see him secure a government job. Madhu holds a mystery: her name changes at intervals, and much of it is revealed along the way, keeping the suspense intact until a certain point. It is Bhupathi, who calls himself Munna Bhai, who becomes the film's most distinctive voice —a man who speaks with ease and leaves behind lines that keep you in splits while sometimes comforting and confusing.

RATING 2.5/5

The film is structured as a road trip, with a yellow car numbered KA 09 MH 2412 central to the narrative. The vehicle becomes a space for conversations, secrets, and shifting identities. As the journey progresses, the script dips into different time frames, revealing personal histories and reminding us that each character carries more than what is visible on the surface.

Humour flows largely through everyday conversations and one-liners, something both Gilli Nata and Gowrav Shetty are known for. The lines arrive naturally and reflect a rooted local flavour, keeping the film grounded even as the narrative edges into drama.

Amid the humour-driven narrative, the film pauses with songs; however, the love track Jaari Hoda... stands out for the meaning in its lyrics.

The road brings a series of brief but colourful detours. Bhupathi shares his many love stories with strangers who eventually become companions. Along the way, Girish Shivanna, a pani puri seller, amusingly narrates the history of the snack, while Tennis Krishna and Nagendra Prasad make short appearances. In one quirky stretch, a policeman records details of a missing car while unknowingly sitting inside the same vehicle — a moment played by Pramod Shetty as Poornachandra.

We also meet Gundpin Govinda (GG), who can unlock almost anything with a ball pin, and veteran Sadhu Kokila, who calls himself LKB —short for Lucky Bhaskar—both of whom are key points in a murder thread. Another interesting turn comes from Dragon Manju as Malgudi Mangava, once Mavinkere Malaya, whose journey from prison to courtroom adds a curious observation. Nearly every character slips into memory, making nostalgia a quiet thread across the film.

Midway, the tone shifts when a supposed dead body inside the car introduces a crime angle. From there, the film plays with identity shifts and layered backstories, blending mystery with light drama without losing its conversational mood.

Gilli Nata's one-line punches land smoothly and often provide the film's most enjoyable moments. He feels natural, though he still seems to be trying to stay casual, much like on stage, with punch lines flowing easily. Gowrav Shetty grows more comfortable as the film progresses, and while both actors bring their own popularity, they still seem to be shaking off a hangover from the big-screen formula, which demands a slightly different tone. Shwetha looks confident, though a few more varied roles may help her settle further.

Director Vijayanand uses the actors' natural humour effectively, letting them behave organically while maintaining basic narrative discipline. Some scenes feel unnecessary, but the film's comedic tone lets them pass without disrupting the overall flow. Technically, the film stays simple, mostly unfolding on roads and inside the car, with pacing that dips occasionally but never loses warmth, and it eventually lands in a courtroom.

Super Hit works as a light, chatty masala entertainer about strangers who slowly become companions. It blends humour, romance, small emotions, and a hint of crime into an easygoing narrative. The film may not fully match the scale its title suggests, but it offers an engaging one-time watch driven by its characters and their journey.

Gilli Nata's fan following has clearly grown, and he remains known for his comic punches. With sharper one-liners tailored to his image, the film tries to connect, though not entirely. Still, it makes for a pleasant watch that will likely find its strongest support among his loyal fans, with Gowrav Shetty and Shwetha providing a breezy grounding, making this road trip a comfortable one-time watch.

AN EARNEST FILM ABOUT THE FIGHT FOR DIGNITY

THE RISE OF ASHOKA
Director: Vinod V Dhondale
Cast: Sathish Ninasam, Sapthami Gowda B Suresha, Sampath Maithreya, Gopalakrishna Deshpande Yash Shetty, Ravi Shankar and P Jagappa

A SHARADHAA

OPPRESSION has become a common theme in recent Kannada cinema. The Rise of Ashoka adds to this by telling a story set in the 1970s, where livelihood, caste, and dignity are closely connected. The film depicts a community whose barbering is passed down through generations. The opening, with the devotional track "Yello Mahadeva," sets a world where faith and social rules coexist, not always comfortably.

RATING 2.5/5

Ashoka (Sathish Ninasam) carries his father's hopes on his shoulders. Gangaraju (B Suresha) believes that education and a government job, with his son becoming a revenue officer, is the only way out of inherited struggles. Their relationship forms the emotional core of the film, and the early part is filled with hope.

Kutty Babji (Sampath Maitreya) is shown as a powerful local contractor from Tamil Nadu who controls the labour economy. However, his character feels like a caricature, and his broken Kannada weakens the sense of threat. Ashoka gives up his job to support his community, raising the question of whether this will restore their dignity.

The film struggles when it moves from a personal story to a larger fight. Ashoka giving up his secure job to stand with his community feels sudden. The screenplay does not show his inner conflict well. The story focuses more on physical fights than on thinking, planning, or changing the system.

Sathish Ninasam performs Ashoka with honesty, especially in quiet moments. In the second half, the film changes tone. Ashoka focuses on revenge and destroys his enemies. Sapthami Gowda as Ambika brings warmth and steadiness, but her thoughts could have been shown more. Even her sacrifices are overlooked. B Suresha, as Gangaraju, adds authenticity and strengthens the emotional parts. The supporting cast, including Yash Shetty and Jagappa, makes the community feel real even if their personal stories remain small.

What starts as a story of dignity and hope becomes a story of action and revenge. The film captures the 1970s setting very well. While the torn appointment letter is a strong visual, it does not fully convey Ashoka's emotions.

The Rise of Ashoka is an earnest, observant social drama with conviction and good performances, yet uneven in execution. Its first half promises subtlety and moral depth, but the story's pivot to revenge undermines that promise. A fight for dignity, not always on equal terms. Had it trusted education, conversations, and systemic struggle over fists and vengeance, it might have truly risen.

Stay lifted on The Kerala Story 2 release

CE FEATURES

AFTER hearing the arguments in an urgent hearing held on Thursday evening, Kerala High Court Division Bench lifted the stay order on the release of The Kerala Story 2.

Earlier on Thursday, a single judge bench (justice Bechi Kurian Thomas) had passed the interim order of staying the release for 15 days, asking the makers not to release the film until Central Board of Film Certification (CBFC) re-examines the film and grants approval for its theatrical release. The ruling was followed by an appeal from the producers who then asked for an urgent hearing from the division bench.

Nagaraj Somayaji's Devi Mahatme begins production

CE FEATURES

DEVI Mahatme, directed by Nagaraj Somayaji, has officially gone on floors with a traditional and spiritually significant muhurat ceremony held at the revered Sri Brahmi Durgaparameshwari Temple. Nestled in Kamalashile in Kundapura taluk of Udupi district, the temple provided a divine backdrop for the launch.

The muhurat ceremony was attended by producer Gandhirajan, hereditary trustee Sri Sachchidananda Chathra, director Nagaraj Somayaji, and cinematographer SK Rao, along with key members of the film's crew.

Nagaraj Somayaji, who has directed Maryade Prashne, returns with Devi Mahatme. He has penned the story himself. The writing team includes Aravind Kuplikar, Bhaskar Bangera, Guru Arya, and Vadiraj Shetty, who have collaborated to shape the screenplay and narrative structure. Cinematography is handled by SK Rao, while Prasad K Shetty is composing the music. Described as a comedy thriller, Devi Mahatme aims to strike a balance between humor and suspense. Shooting has commenced in and around Kundapura, and the project is set to feature a large ensemble cast.

This MeToo thriller is pacy but has no time to ponder

KARTIK BHARDWAJ

THE Indo-British feminist noir is becoming a cliche of its own. Think The Buckingham Murders (2023), Ulajh (2024) and Badla (2019). Set in hazy British towns, these films are mostly fronted by a flawed female protagonist trying either to solve a case or clear her name, battling inner demons as well as a patriarchal system. She wears long overcoats when she feels confident and goes for a run in a hoodie while trying to work out a problem in her head. The weather is always sunless, reflecting the greyness of its characters. The issue isn't just the repetitive aesthetics. This micro-genre deals with an Indian woman's standing in society, how the powerful amongst them are perceived and how much they are allowed to be vulnerable. But what it also does is pull out the Indian woman from an Indian context. The themes become more universal and thus lose out on their sharp specificity. Points don't hit home because events are unfolding so far away from it.

RATING 2.5/5

In director Anubhuti Kashyap's sophomore feature Accused, Konkona Sensharma plays Geetika, a woman-in-power gynaecologist who is great at her job and as it is the case with most overachieving individuals, she is stern, rude and has limited tolerance for incompetence. Resultantly, she often rubs both colleagues and subordinates the wrong way. Geetika is married to her lesbian partner Meera (Laapataa Ladies fame Pratibha Ranta), a soft-spoken paediatrician. The couple is looking forward to a new chapter in their lives as Geetika has bagged the position of a dean at a hospital in a different city and moreover, they are also trying to adopt a baby. Their best laid plans, however, are thwarted soon when multiple anonymous emails are received by Geetika's employer hospital, accusing her of sexual harassment. It opens a can of worms from Geetika's past that threatens to ruin her relationship with Meera and also her long-standing reputation.

ACCUSED

Cast: Konkona Sensharma, Pratibha Ranta, Sukant Goel

For most of its runtime, Accused operates like an edge-of-the-seat thriller which is both its strength and undoing. Surely, the viewer is hooked but they are more inclined towards finding the perpetrator rather than understanding and imbibing the points the film actually wants to make. We are more concerned with finding the puzzle pieces than observing the picture they finally make. With keyed-up scenes, the film often feels like it is trying to appease the algorithm. Thus, the film's themes are sacrificed at the altar of the thrills.

Viewed purely as a riveting thriller, Accused does have some merits. It's fast-paced, engaging and you are eager to know what comes next. Konkona gives a layered performance as Geetika, a woman so high on power that she actually starts behaving like a man. As a character, Geetika is interestingly written. She gets the freedom to be flawed and her moral manoeuvrings make for a delicious watch. Pratibha Ranta as Meera provides a balance to the assertive Geetika but doesn't get her own shine much.

Director Anubhuti Kashyap's opinions are fresh but their depiction is rudimentary. The essence of the film is often spelt out in shoddily written dialogues. Accused seems to be functioning as two films: one is a pacy thriller with enough twists and turns while the other is just a bunch of theatrical monologues and the two don't blend evenly. Accused would have benefited if it had enough breathers, more space for character development and pauses so that the points made get time to linger. The woman in the hoodie doesn't necessarily have to run past her problems, she can, probably, sit with her feelings on a park bench.

Last Mile Connectivity by GNA: Technology provides for PSA-linked 'Manthan' Platform

GNA India Private Limited has announced a breakthrough last-mile connectivity initiative aimed at bridging persistent digital gaps across rural India, Tier 2 and Tier 3 towns, and semi-urban clusters. Aligned with the Office of the Principal Scientific Adviser (PSA) to the Government of India, the initiative advances Hon'ble Prime Minister Narendra Modi's Digital India vision and Smart Village framework.

Unveiled in Bengaluru, the initiative leverages advanced, PSA-linked digital platforms and collaborates with Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited (BSNL) to integrate telecom backbone infrastructure with scalable, community-focused systems, including Rural Smart Village Centres (RSVCs).

Speaking at the launch, Nagaraja Munidasappa, MD of GNA India Pvt. Ltd., said, "Connectivity is not merely infrastructure - it is the foundation for opportunity. When the last mile is connected, education, healthcare, and livelihoods naturally follow."

Highlighting the healthcare impact, Dr. Vishal Rao, Member, Consultative Group to the PSA, noted, "Reliable digital access enables preventive healthcare, AI-driven diagnostics, and remote consultations - ensuring innovation reaches villages, not just cities."

Former Union Minister Ananth Kumar Hegde underscored that rural connectivity is central to inclusive growth and national digital empowerment.

The initiative is further supported by Acer India, reinforcing the integration of connectivity with accessible computing infrastructure to accelerate education, governance, and telemedicine delivery nationwide.
